IS BUSH INSANE?

Investigative reporter Seymour M. Hersh, a Pulitzer Prize winner and a man of unblemished reputation, recently declared in a New Yorker article that George W. Bush and his minions are planning a nuclear attack on Iran. In response, the President issued a classic nondenial denial, calling Mr. Hersh's claim "wild speculation." Even a complete denial from Bush would be meaningless; he is a proven liar many times over.

Although the many consequences of such a preemptive strike would be incalculable, several are incredibly predictable. The 1.5 billion Muslims (a quarter of the world's population) would be enraged. All nations—Christian, Muslim, whatever—would shrink from America in horror. Russia and China would go on hair-trigger alert, all their nuclear missiles pointed at us. We would become, at the very least, a pariah nation shunned by the international community.

Would George W. Bush actually authorize such a strike? Consider his record: He stole two Presidential elections (2000, 2004), walked away from both the Kyoto Accord on global warming and the nuclear nonproliferation agreement, spent the United States into near bankruptcy (all China has to do is call in the debt), and invaded Iraq, lying about the reasons. Most chilling of all, Bush is an end-timer. As a born-again Christian fundamentalist, he believes that the world must be destroyed before Christ can return. Do you really think the stupid s.o.b. wouldn't mind hurrying things along?

Based on the evidence, I submit that the President is either dangerously stupid or certifiably insane. Either way, Congress should remove him from office under the powers stipulated in Article II of the U.S. Constitution and the 25th Amendment. Considering what's at stake, Congress must act immediately.

THE ANDY WARHOL POLITICAL THEORY
EVERY POLITICIAN IS HONEST - FOR 15 MINUTES!
TOOLEY.

FRIEDMAN

Brad Friedman is a muckraking blogger who holds the bad guys accountable when the mainstream media won't. His article Death of Democracy (pages 82-83) details the suspicious demise of a government investigator tipped off by a whistle-blower in Florida's simmering vote-rigging scandal. Friedman, whose exhaustive BradBlog.com Web site posts news items and hard evidence on this and other breaking stories, is also cofounder of VelvetRevolution.us—a coalition of over 100 election-reform and voting-rights advocates fighting America's vote-tabulating companies.

HURLEY

Technology analyst and freelance writer Ro Hurley hails from San Pedro, California, and was raised in a working-class neighborhood rife with longshoremen, sailors and colorful personalities. A love for comedy prompted her to interview the salty and smelly Yucko the Clown (pages 40-42). In her spare time, Hurley is a hiking, exploring and travel enthusiast who's ventured to every continent except Antarctica. Currently residing in Dallas, she and former XXX performer Tabitha Stevens are collaborating on a book titled Happy Endings: From International Porn Star to Mainstream Actress.

ANDERSON

Freelance illustrator Noel "Scotch" Anderson of Hawley, Minnesota, also doubles as a radio personality. Five days a week the funnyman commutes to Fargo, North Dakota, where he and sidekicks Kydd and Dave host Classic Rock 107.9's Fox Morning Show. Anderson, whose airwave duties include delivering "Stupid News," is a frequent contributor to HUSTLER, with his latest send-up, Supedupman, beginning on page 84. Meanwhile, his cartoon parody The Cozby Shame can be found in HUSTLER HUMOR's Volume 28 Number 2, at newsstands now. Anderson's masterful work has also graced such humor publications as Cracked, Thwak and Jokester. One of his current projects is an illustrated adaptation of Fred Olen Ray's B-movie classic Hollywood Chainsaw Hookers.

KHAN

While pursuing his master's degree in media management at Syracuse University, Aslum Khan penned erotica for our former sister mag BUSTY BEAUTIES. Now based in L.A., the self-proclaimed big-breast lover (who also has soft spots for hot black women and catfighting) busts into HUSTLER. His eye-opening article The Biggest Tits in the World! (pages 78-80) uncovers the story behind the humongous boobs of Guinness record holder Maxi Mounds and the glorious globes of Chesty Morgan and Mistress Rhiannon. Khan, whose literary achievements include the comic book Robotech: Escape, holds a day job as an admissions adviser at a Southern California university.

Legit Source

I saw the movie The People vs. Larry Flynt and went down to the porn shop to see what your magazine was all about. That was honestly the first adults-only magazine I had ever purchased—and I'm 21. I was always told that pornography was wrong and that it degraded women. After watching the Flynt biopic and thinking for myself, I've come to the conclusion that pornography—for the most part—isn't bad.

I commend you and your magazine's contributors for publishing so many amazing articles. In just one issue of HUSTLER I learned more about the political climate than I could from reading the New York Times for an entire month.

I wish more people would take the political aspects of your publication seriously. I've had several conversations about politics lately, and every time I quote a passage from your magazine, I get laughed at as soon as I cite the source. It sucks, because I truly believe that HUSTLER Magazine is a legitimate source. —E.M.

E.M., a House member responded to a fellow reader who'd brought up a controversial topic covered in this mag. See letter below.

HUSTLER's Beltway Connection

Reacting to the article UFOs: What the Government Really Knows (HUSTLER, November '05), reader Jeremy Butler sent a letter to Congressman Bart Stupak (D-Michigan). The lawmaker's reply follows.

Dear Mr. Butler: Thank you for making me aware of the Disclosure Project. I appreciated hearing from you and apologize for the delay in my response.

The Disclosure Project works to disclose the facts about UFOs, extraterrestrial intelligence, and classified advanced energy and propulsion systems. It appears that many long hours have gone into producing this Web site [DisclosureProject.org] and its contents.

Although I believe that space research is important, other priorities cannot be ignored in the 2006 budget. Unfortunately, the President's budget cuts important programs that provide needed resources for veterans, homeland security and education.

Again, I appreciate you bringing this Web site to my attention, and I will keep it in mind if legislation regarding UFOs or extraterrestrial intelligence is discussed in the House of Representatives.

Thank you again for contacting me, and please feel free to contact me again in the future with issues that concern you. Sincerely,

—Bart Stupak

P.S. I did view the Web site and directed members of the Science Committee to review it.

Brittney Skye

Skye's the Limit

Your June '06 issue, with lots of fabulous women to enjoy, was tremendous. Putting porn star Brittney Skye on the cover certainly got things going, and the doll's layout inside didn't let me down. Brittney has a perfect pair of hooters and loves to show off her pussy and ass, which really helps my jerking-off activities. Seeing Brittney in black boots, with her blond hair draped all over her hot body, made me come even harder!

However, I must lodge one complaint: Excessive eye makeup gave Brittney an unnatural aura.

One last thing. I found a very (continued on page 189)

LETTER FROM OUR TROOPS

The last time I wrote you, I was conducting operations in the southern peninsula of Fallujah, Iraq. At that time, I thought it would be my last deployment with my unit. However, after leaving Iraq temporarily, I transferred battalions in order to go back there again. I now find myself in Karbala with the 1st Battalion 7th Marines 2nd Platoon.

I just found the business card one of your editors enclosed in a 2005 HUSTLER care package sent to Iraq. I figured I'd give it another shot and see if you guys could put something together for me and my Marines. Anything to help us pass the time would be great. Our vision of America is often blinded by our reality. Help us remember an America we love.

If there's anything we could do in return, we gladly will. I have a lot of boys here. With that, I will say farewell for now. I hope to hear from you soon.

Chevron

WE LOVE YOUR CARS

(It's certain Third World people we have a problem with.)

You might have heard about us being sued by the Ecuadoran government. It claims that runoff from our factories poisoned local drinking water and may have caused birth defects (including fused fingers), as well as a high rate of stomach cancer in local children.

We're the company whose ad campaigns feature those cute, lovable cartoon cars. Do you really believe that anything could make such a family-friendly enterprise pollute Ecuador's rain forest and cause birth defects? Other than cheaper production? Or lax environmental laws? And, oh yeah, record profits?

HUSTLER Parody: This is not a real ad. This is social commentary on how Chevron has put profit over people by polluting the Ecuadoran rain forest. Check out AmazonWatch.org for more details. Alec Baldwin

Overweight, rage-aholic Alec Baldwin was driven to his breaking point while co-hosting a conservative radio show. When right-wing Fox News pundit Sean Hannity called in to confront the actor, Baldwin had an on-air meltdown, then left the studio 20 minutes into a two-hour show.

Instead of engaging Hannity directly, Baldwin opted to respond through his own HuffingtonPost.com blog. There, in a March 28 entry, he called Hannity a "political pornographer," comparing the uptight windbag to Larry Flynt. Big mistake, Alec.

"Pornography is the lurid and detached exploitation of something that is essentially good, even necessary, in order to make money, while simultaneously shaming and disgracing all of those who are involved," Baldwin wrote online. "Hannity is the Larry Flynt of talk radio. And he has about as much influence in the world of American public affairs as Flynt."

Obviously, Baldwin doesn't have a fucking clue. If he could get over his repressive Irish-Catholic childhood enough to actually read HUSTLER, he would realize that Larry Flynt has had a profound influence on public affairs.

Flynt was exposing the corruption and lies of our country's politicians long before the existence of Air America Radio, Sirius Satellite Radio and the blogosphere and long before a "politically aware" Alec Baldwin began pontificating on current events. Flynt even won a historic Supreme Court case, striking a decisive blow for free speech. What has Baldwin ever done—other than shoot off his fat mouth?

Baldwin, whose most "significant" recent film role was in Thomas and the Magic Railroad, is a former pretty boy with an ego that is expanding at almost the same rate as his girth. Embarrassed by his inability to out-reason intellectual lightweight Hannity on the radio, Baldwin foolishly sought to redeem himself by attacking Larry Flynt, believing that the label of "pornographer" made him an easy and safe target. Guess again, fat boy.

When he's not being accused of assaulting his lovely ex-wife, Kim Basinger, or convicted of bashing photographers trying to take pictures of him and his family in a public place, Baldwin seems intent on proving that not all the synapses in his brain are fully functioning. Case in point: Following 9/11 the fading star suggested erecting on Ground Zero a new Yankees baseball stadium where New York City cops and firefighters could get discounted tickets.

Appearing on Conan O'Brien's show, Baldwin bellowed, "If we were in other countries, we would all right now...go down to Washington, and we would stone [Congressman] Henry Hyde [R-Illinois] to death... and we would go to their homes, and we'd kill their wives and their children. We would kill their families." NBC has since vowed to never re-air the episode. Yeah, Alec, that's a great way to win people over to the Progressive cause.

Given the foregoing, we shouldn't be surprised about Baldwin's aforementioned on-air meltdown. "Why would I want to come on the show with a no-talent, former construction worker hack like you?" Baldwin ranted when Hannity phoned in. "You incredibly ignorant boob from Long Island. You should go back to building houses in Hempstead!"

No doubt that unique brand of elitism alienated a lot of hard-hats, not to mention most of the voters in that stretch of New York State. Way to go, Alec. (Curiously, the actor has a mansion in the Hamptons and was raised on Long Island.)

It comes as no surprise that Kim Basinger, whose silver screen career has far eclipsed her former husband's, wants to keep custody of their only child, Ireland. Since their nine-year marriage was officially dissolved in 2002, the couple has waged a bitter custody battle. In the process, Basinger has alleged that Baldwin was a wife-beater, while the volatile daddy has accused her of child-snatching.

The onetime leading man, who now resembles an about-to-be-launched balloon in the Big Apple's annual Thanksgiving Day parade, continues the Left's self-destructive tradition of attacking their own, this time with Flynt as the target.

Of course, we can dish it out as well as you can, Alec—actually, even better. Congratulations, you pathetic loser, on being named HUSTLER's Asshole of the Month!

Oh, and one more thing—a message to Kim Basinger: If you really wanna piss your ex off, come down for a photo-op with Mr. Flynt. The doors are always open.

Farts in the Wind

Brian J. Doyle, 55, is the Department of Homeland Security official who recently resigned after his arrest on charges of allegedly seducing a child via the Internet. Although he had also been disciplined at Time magazine for downloading porn in 2001, within two years Doyle was working for Homeland Security, where—under the direction of incompetent boob Michael Chertoff—he was appointed deputy press secretary with clearance to top-secret material. In 2005 Doyle caught heat for defending air marshals who'd killed unarmed Costa Rican Rigoberto Alpizar in Florida. Like many other inept losers rampant within the Bush Administration, Doyle is a sick predator who should never have been hired in the first place.

William Bennett recently called for the imprisonment of three journalists who'd won the Pulitzer Prize. The conservative radio host got all riled up because the reporters had exposed illegal NSA wiretapping and secret CIA torture centers. On his show, Bennett said that the Pulitzer recipients were not "worthy of an award," but rather "worthy of jail." He went on to urge listeners to write to New York Times and Washington Post editors. "These people who reveal our secrets," Bennett railed, "who hurt our war effort, who hurt the efforts of our CIA, who hurt efforts of the President's people—they shouldn't be given prizes and awards for this. They should be looked into!" As you can see, Bennett is a raving lunatic.

Eyes on the Road!

Police arrested a 33-year-old man near Murfreesboro, Tennessee, after he inadvertently ran several other motorists off the road. Was the dude drunk? Nope, but he was definitely under the influence—the influence of pornography! Officials noted that the suspect had been distracted by several open adult magazines strewn on the front seat of his car. He was booked on charges of reckless driving. HUSTLER has been named as an accomplice to the crime.

Customized Cock

A German company is offering a line of individually tailored condoms anatomically designed to fit each penis perfectly. This is attained by a machine that measures each member to produce a unique, 3-D computer image. The rubbers also feature the user's signature wrapped around the base. Great! We'll take five dozen in size XXX Large with the following personalized inscription: "HUSTLER readers really know how to give it to the ladies—all types of ladies." Yes, this item is really just another chance for us to brag about having big cocks.

Deadbeat Driver

Faking your own death is nothing new, but doing it to avoid paying parking tickets?! Facing $500 in fines, a woman in Iowa created a fake obituary and forged a letter to a judge, saying she had died in a car crash. The scofflaw's plan fell apart when authorities noticed she had been issued an additional citation a month after her "death." The woman now faces up to five years behind bars. We can't really blame her for taking such drastic measures, since we once did the same thing to get rid of a crazy ex-girlfriend. You remember Kelly? That bitch was nuts!

Dedicated Reader

They say you can't take it with you, but in the case of a Russian man and his extensive porn collection, that phrase rings false. The 65-year-old designed a custom coffin with a special space to store his skin magazines after surviving a recent heart attack. The unmarried man reasoned, "The girls in those magazines have been my companions for years, and I want them to accompany me to the next life." We assume his buddies are pissed off about not inheriting all that A-1 filth.

LESTER: Damn! Look at those!

Have you encountered ventriloquist groupies?

When we heard that a birthday party was in progress at our local hangout, we couldn't pass up an opportunity to see what some girls would do for a little easy money and a few surprises.

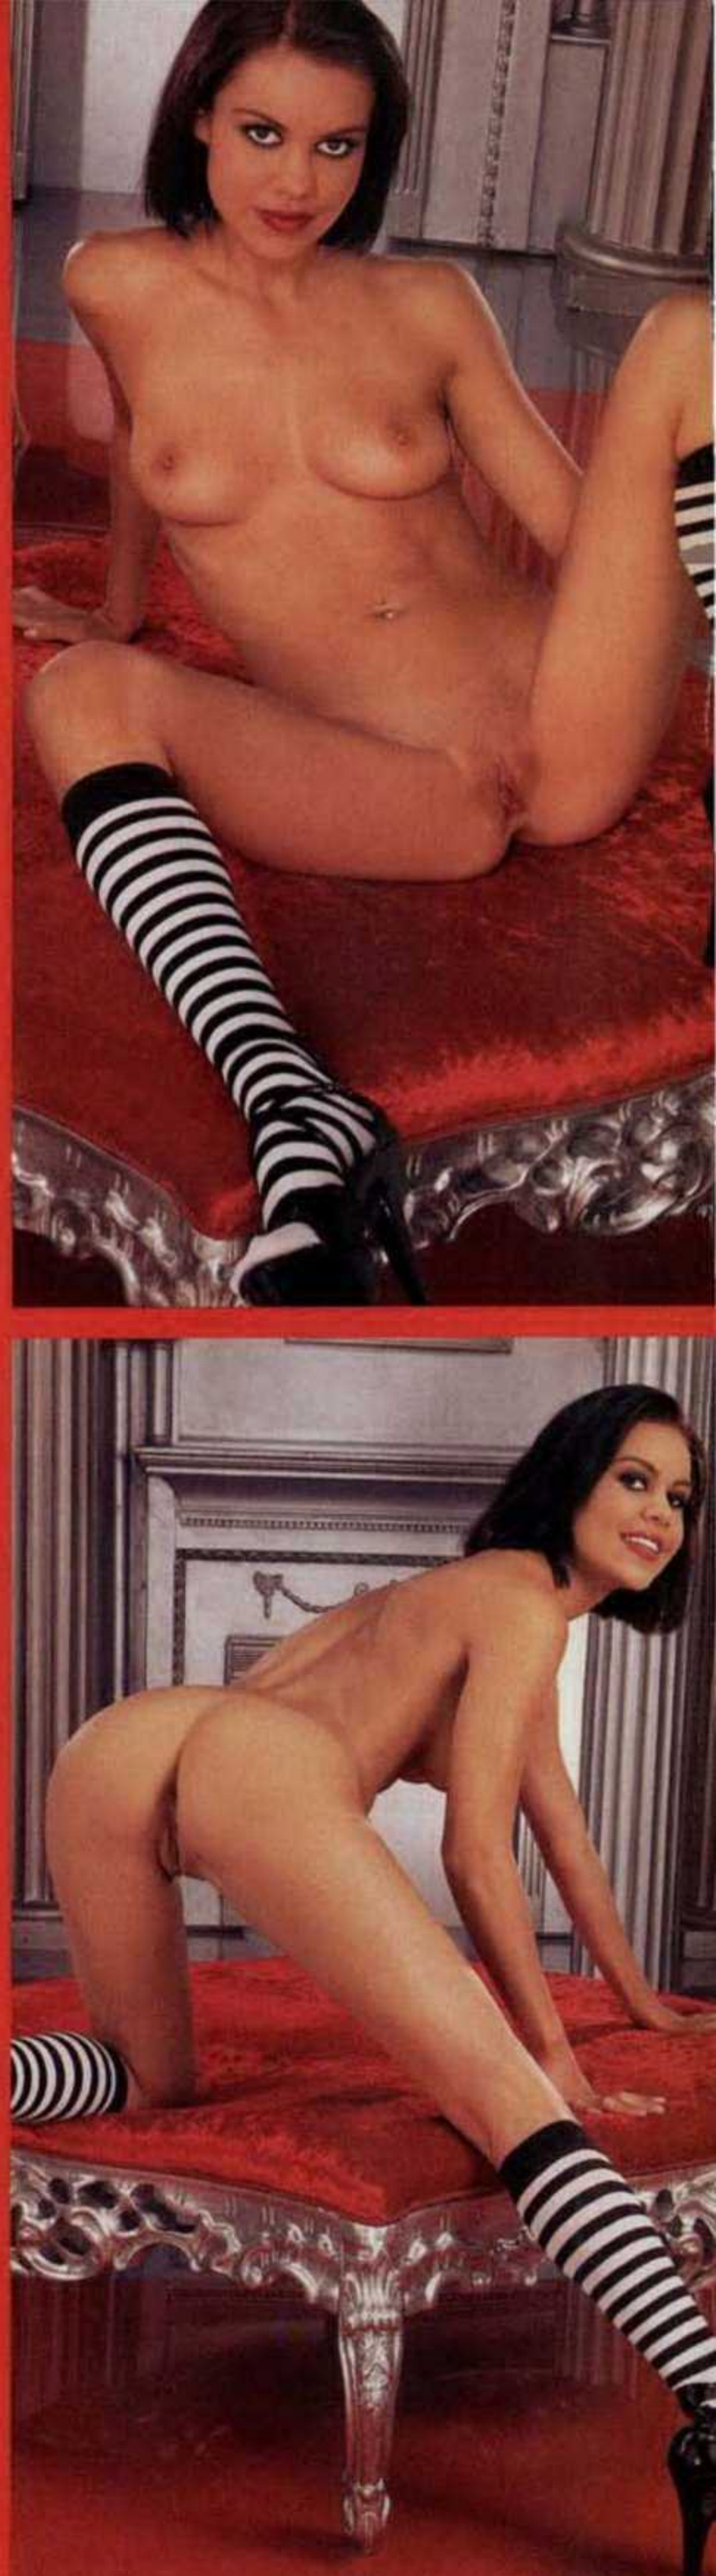
RUBY KNOX

EARNING HER STRIPES

PHOTOGRAPHY BY LAURENT SKY



Here's a 20-year-old Canadian who couldn't wait to turn pro. "I'd been doing a lot of amateur photos back home, mostly just girl-on-girl stuff. I always wanted to be an adult actress, so at the 2006 AVN Show—my very first time in Las Vegas—I walked up to the HUSTLER booth and introduced myself. Now I'm in the magazine!"

Already, Ruby has decided not to limit herself to photo-spreads. "I'm starting to do porn films," the 110-pounder reveals. "It's great being on a professional set with all the lights and equipment. It really makes me feel like a star. I just finished my first film, Porn of the Dead. I play this zombie chick who gets fucked by a bunch of guys!"

What does Ruby like to do when she's in her own boudoir? "You mean sex?" she seductively asks. "It doesn't have to be just in the bedroom, does it? Maybe it could be in the bathroom of an airplane on a flight to Tokyo. I haven't joined the Mile High Club yet, but that's my greatest fantasy—to have some guy screw me at 20,000 feet!"

In the sky or down to Earth, the 5-foot-5 dynamo is looking for a truly compatible (and equal) sexual partner. "Someone who's willing to try anything and everything like me," Ruby explains, "whether it's choking, slapping my ass, whatever. It doesn't always have to be rough, but it has to be interesting."

Ruby may be new to the scene, but the lively knockout admits to having a crazy life. "Well, I'm a Cancer," she says, "and most people I know with that sign are wild and really enjoy life. An old boyfriend of mine and I once stole his uncle's Porsche, and we ended up fucking on the hood off the side of the highway. That was just one of many wild nights. Like I said, you gotta enjoy life!"

The next day I decided to only show my hooters to truckers with mustaches.

FLOOZIE FLASHER HIJINKS

It all started as a game—flashing truckers for fun. Driving home cross-country, it helped to ease the boredom brought on by endless, sleepy stretches of blacktop. Especially across Texas.

I was zipping along at 70, 80 miles per hour, in cutoff shorts and a skimpy halter, me in my little Miata with the top down. It was hot. I was hot. It had been days since I'd been laid, and the vibration of the engine was beginning to get to me. It was making my pussy pulse. So when the hook came loose on my halter—like the damn thing was always doing—well, I let the fabric slip down over my breasts, let the wind tease my fat nipples erect. God, it felt good!

I had just lifted one hand from the wheel to twist a titty bud when an 18-wheeler practically side-swiped me onto the shoulder. Asshole! But when I looked up, the trucker was grinning and ogling my titties, reaching to blast his air horn. And I'll admit, it thrilled me. I felt my clit press against the seam in my shorts. Smiling, I hefted a jug to my lips for a quick lick, then sped off down the highway.

The next rest stop found me masturbating frantically in a lavatory stall, three fingers jammed into my quim, a hairbrush handle up my tush. I thought about that rugged trucker pawing my body—imagined him slapping my big boobs with his dick. It took me less than two minutes to climax so hard, my thighs shook.

After that I was hooked. Oh, I didn't expose my ta-tas to every trucker. Like I said, I made a game of it. It was kind of arbitrary. Day One I just flashed drivers in Peterbuilts. The next day I decided to only show my hooters to truckers with mustaches. 'Course, as it turns out, damn near every semi driver in the Lone Star State has a mustache, and by noon I was hotter than a five-alarm fire in July.

So I pulled into a truckstop, anxious to frig off in the semi-privacy of a rest room stall. I was rushing past the lunch counter when a big hand reached out and grabbed my arm. It was a bear of a man I recognized from about ten miles back, a trucker with a mustache. I wasn't really scared, just surprised. When he took my hand and pressed it against the crotch of his jeans—against the long, hard bulge running down one thigh—I heard a moan. It was mine.

"You did this to me, you know," the hunk stated matter-of-factly.

My fingertips continued exploring. God, he was thick.

"You know, lady," the feller drawled, "I've got me a bed in my rig."

Five minutes later we were on the bunk in his cab, his face in my ass. That trucker was an amazing man. I had expected him to be all take, but he turned out to be all give. Rimming, pussy-licking. The man feasted on my twat like it was his last meal on Earth, making it crystal clear that he relished the taste. Nothing like the college nerds I was used to, who licked a little obligatory pussy in exchange for a blowjob. And the way his bristly mustache grazed back and forth over my sensitive clit—mmmmm.

The marvelous trucker pushed two fingers in alongside his tongue, and I was coming. I was still coming when his cock slammed all the way into my fuck box and stayed there. The stud said he could feel my pussy clutch around his prod. He went on to tell me how sexy I was, how hot and hard I made his log. Then slowly he started moving. Cupping my butt cheeks in his palms, he fucked me with long, deep strokes. The smell of sex and sweat filled the cab, and it was powerfully erotic.

The stranger—I never did catch his name—was so strong and muscular, so masculine. My orgasms streamed together till I felt like a rag doll in his arms, all weak and wonderful. His lunges grew faster. He asked me if I wanted him to pull out so he could come on me. I managed, "No—no, please!" right before his fingers gripped my ass cheeks, crushing me to him as he filled my cunt with boiling jism.

It was, without doubt, the best sex of my life. I lapped my lover clean and left that rig completely sated. In fact, I didn't flash another trucker...till the next morning.

AMERICA'S NUCLEAR POWER PLANTS

BY HARVEY WASSERMAN

THE COMING ATOMIC APOCALYPSE

PART I

IT IS THE MORNING OF SEPTEMBER 11, 2001. Mohammed Atta is at the controls of the jetliner he and his fellow terrorists have just hijacked. As per orders from their leader, Osama bin Laden, they are headed for the World Trade Center, determined to make history.

But what if Atta has other plans? What if he wants to do lasting damage? What if he wants to bring America to its knees? Below him is the weapon of mass destruction he intends to detonate—the Indian Point nuclear plant, just 35 miles from midtown Manhattan.

When the facility, overlooking the Hudson River, went online in the 1960s, the surrounding area was sparsely populated. Today millions live within a 20-mile radius of the energy center—including the governor of New York, George Pataki. Atta could kill every soul. All he has to do is aim the 767 at Indian Point's three reactors and spent fuel pools.

Even though Indian Point Unit One has been shut since 1974, the reactor remains highly radioactive. Units Two and Three are still licensed to operate at full blast, although they are frequently shut down due to operator incompetence and aging. Even such simple accessories as sirens designed to warn the public of disaster fail in test after test. The reactors themselves are inefficient, unreliable megamachines constantly leaking radiation into the nearby community.

Hijackers like Atta know that Indian Point has no antiaircraft gun emplacements or radar system. When the plummeting airline destroys the reactor complex, nobody working there will know what hit them.

A large passenger airplane is more than capable of penetrating old, relatively flimsy reactor containment structures. Some of the newer American facilities might have shells strong enough to resist a crashing jet, but certainly not the primitive, obsolete shells in place at Indian Point and at numerous other U.S. nuclear plants.

To spark a catastrophe, it isn't even necessary to strike the reactors themselves. Any fiery explosion close enough to shake or singe the plant's highly vulnerable control systems will suffice. Disaster can also come from crippling the fragile cooling systems that stand between the operating reactors and multiple meltdowns. A disastrous collapse can occur in hundreds of different ways. Even the spent fuel pools, with huge stacks of extremely radioactive rods, need constant cooling and could cause a catastrophe on their own.

Take the following hypothetical situation as an example of how a nuclear crisis might unfold: After being struck by an airliner, the wounded reactor's superheated core can melt into a molten radioactive mass. Like those of dozens of other aging American nukes, the metals that comprise Indian Point's critical containment and cooling systems have been rendered brittle by decades of intense bombardment from radiation and heat. They are vulnerable to shattering, especially if water is suddenly poured in to stop a meltdown. If shaken or cooled too rapidly, these metals could shatter and disintegrate into hyper-radioactive dust, letting loose the core's lethal poisons. Deprived of coolant, the spent fuel pools could follow suit.

The result would be an intensely radioactive molten lava capable of penetrating the facility's metallic and concrete structures and into the soil. The volatile mass would burn down to the water table, flashing it to explosive steam, blowing through to the Hudson, releasing gargantuan clouds of

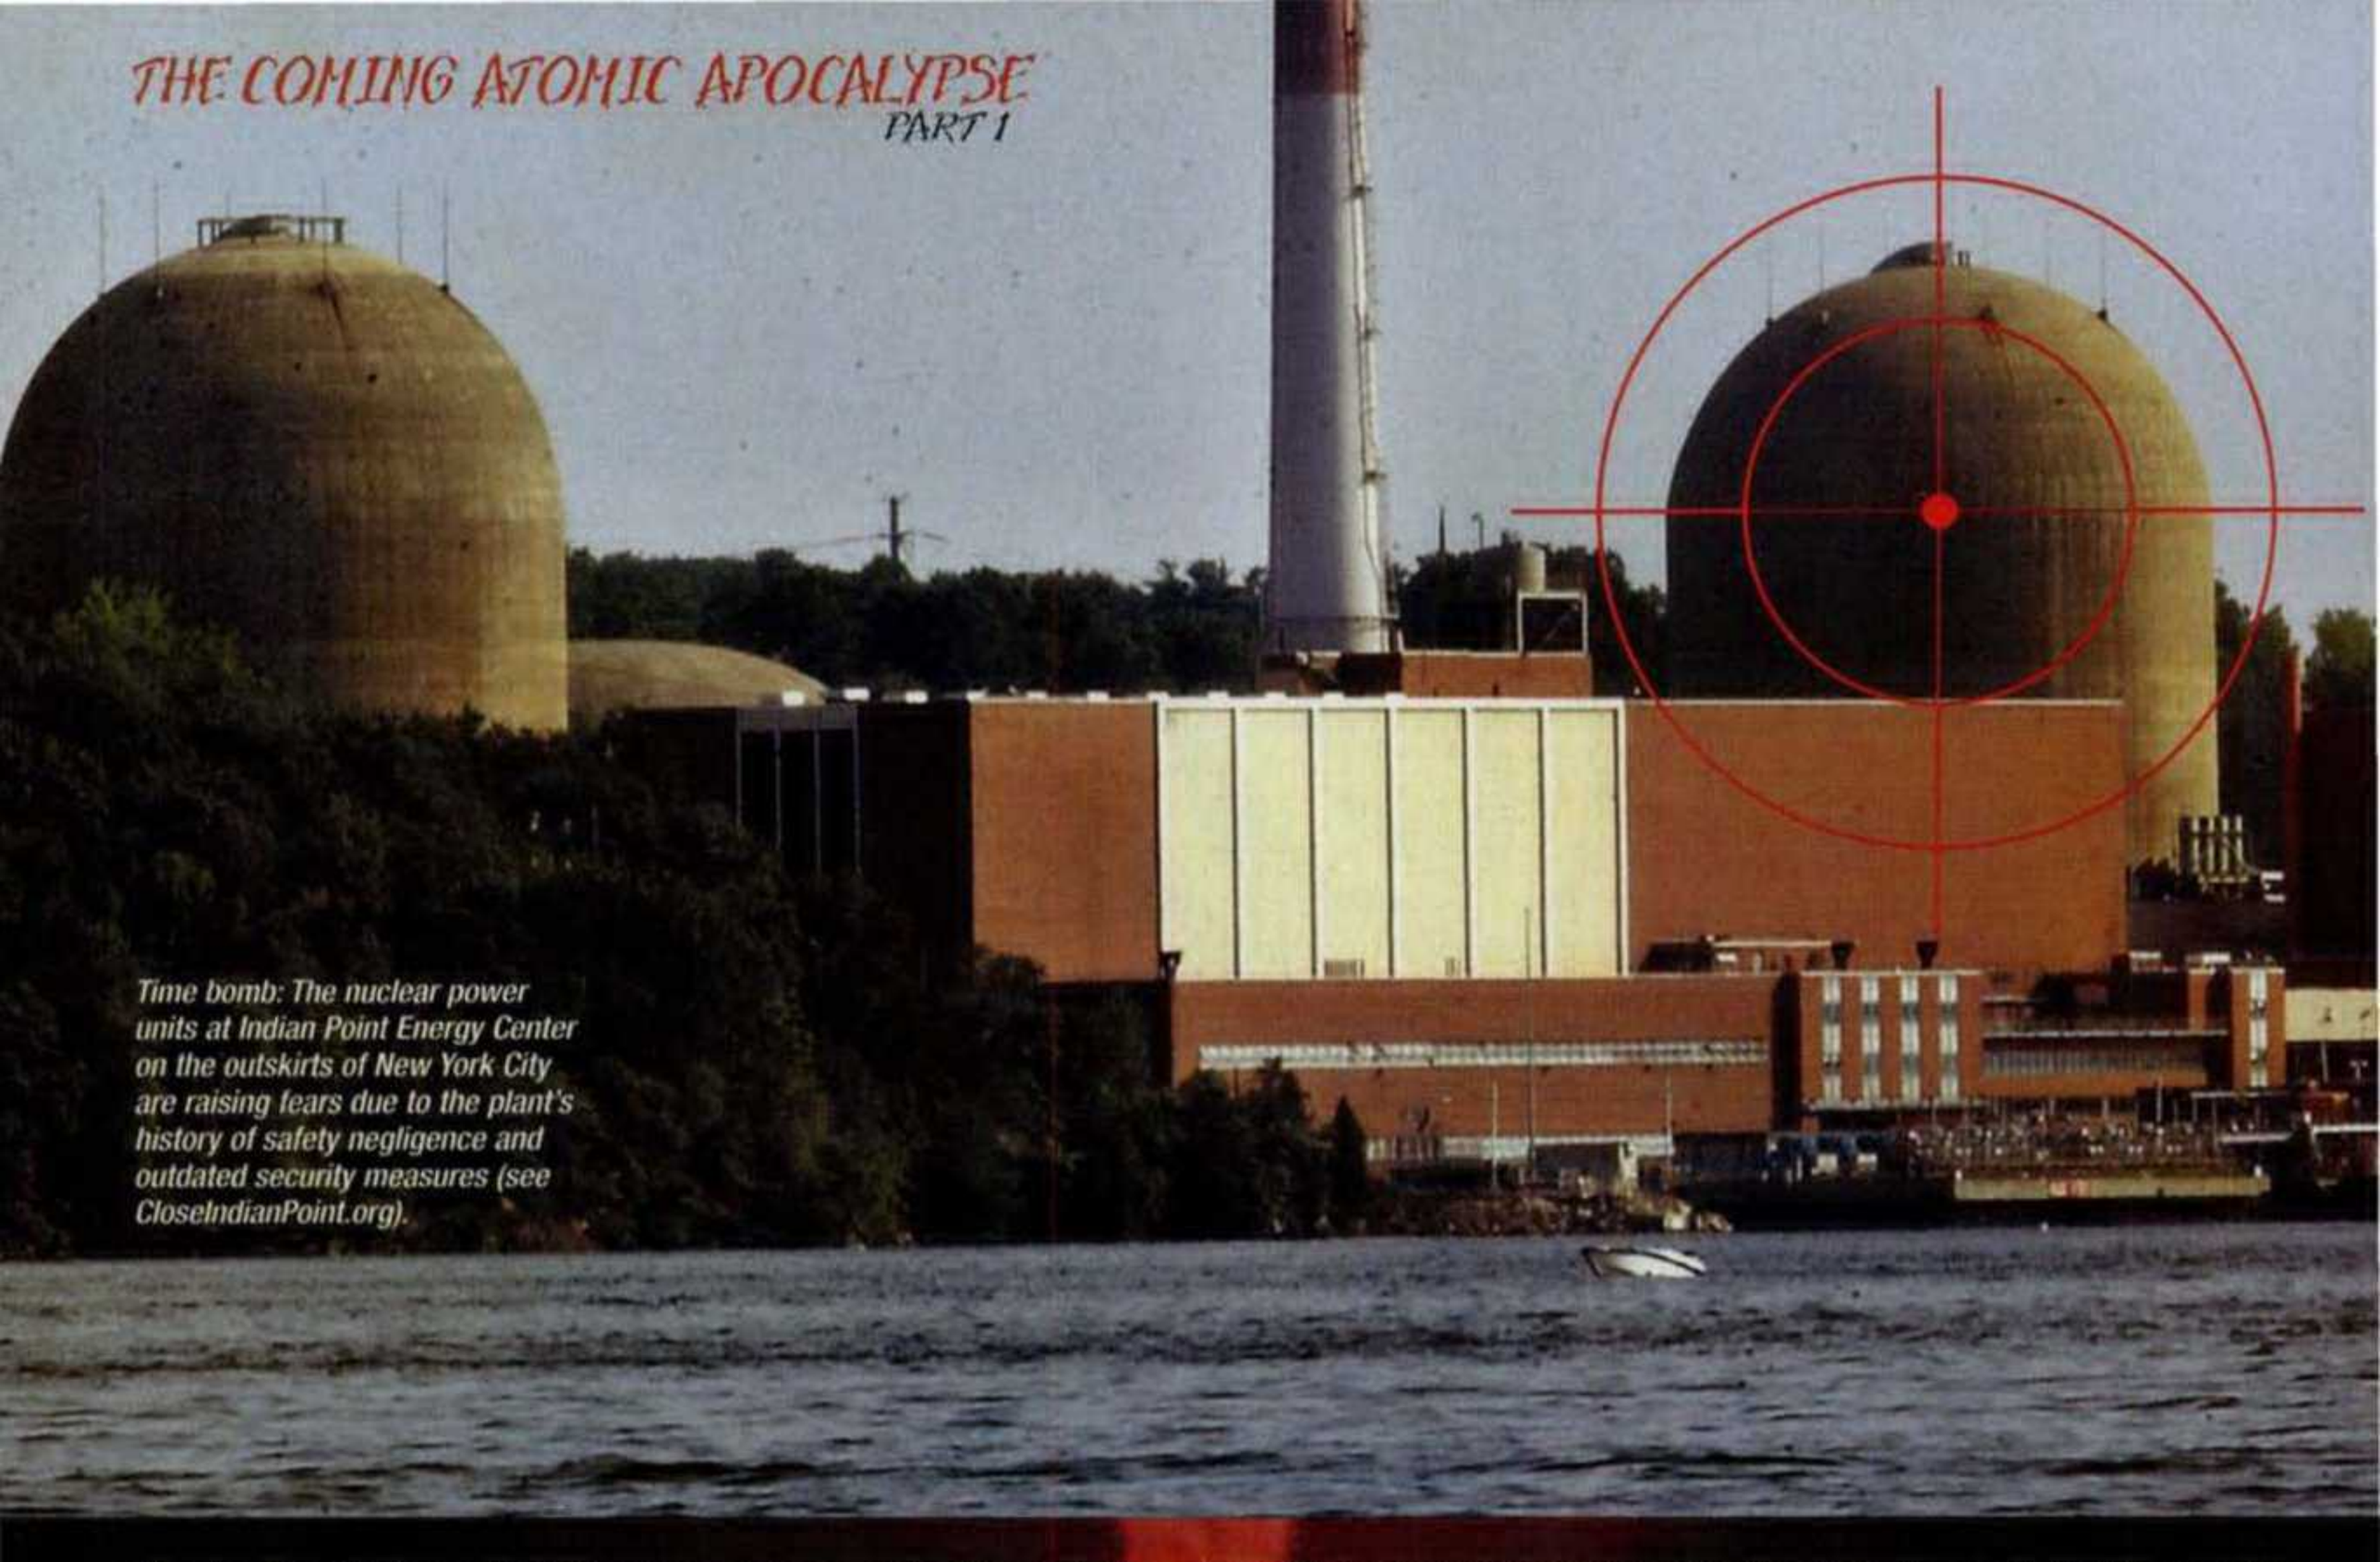
THE COMING ATOMIC APOCALYPSE
PART 1



Time bomb: The nuclear power units at Indian Point Energy Center on the outskirts of New York City are raising fears due to the plant's history of safety negligence and outdated security measures (see CloseIndianPoint.org).

ultradeadly radiation, with killing power never seen before on Earth—even at Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

Indian Point and the rest of Westchester County turn immediately into a dead zone. Thousands perish within minutes or hours. Virtually every pregnant woman in the area spontaneously aborts. Small children, the sick and the elderly drop like flies.

The cloud carries like a horrific grim reaper across the river and into New Jersey and beyond. As the winds shift, deadly radiation blankets the entire region, carries out into Long Island Sound, reaching Nantucket, Martha's Vineyard and Cape Cod, Massachusetts. Inevitably, the killing force sweeps down into Manhattan.

The U.S. government estimates that if a major accident were to hit the Indian Point Two plant north of New York City, there would be 46,000 "early fatalities," 141,000 "early injuries," 13,000 "cancer deaths" and $274 billion in property damage. For the larger Indian Point Three there would be 50,000 "early fatalities," 167,000 "early injuries," 14,000 "cancer deaths" and $314 billion in property damage.

Utter panic magnifies as the news careens across the Internet. The radioactive cloud ravages Europe and spreads death around the globe. The international media goes berserk.

Meanwhile, the entire East Coast of the United States is engulfed in mass hysteria. The nation's financial and media centers are abandoned. As the death toll soars astronomically, the U.S. economy plunges into chaos—the irreparable damage soaring into the trillions. America would never recover.

It would not take a jet crash to inflict such mayhem. Nor would it have to happen at Indian Point. Not one of America's 103 licensed commercial reactors is prepared to resist an attack from the air.

But the Nuclear Regulatory Commission regularly stages drills meant to simulate terrorism from the ground as well. And the reactor operators regularly flunk these tests, even though they often have advanced warning, and the mock attacks are pale shadows of what could actually be staged by determined saboteurs.

Keep in mind that the accidents at Three Mile Island and Chernobyl, with their huge costs in life and property, had nothing to do with terrorism. Time and again, aging reactors are pushed to the brink by pure mismanagement and overuse.

While the Bush Administration shreds the Constitution to "protect America from terror attack," it works to hand those very terrorists still more apocalyptic triggers like Indian Point. Even in the wake of 9/11, the administration has done virtually nothing to upgrade reactor security. When independent watchdog groups such as the Nuclear Information & Resource Service, the Union of Concerned Scientists, Waterkeepers and others suggest safety or security upgrades, the reactor industry trots out its high-paid lawyers to resist the improvements. Or it demands that the public foot the bill.

Indeed, all currently operating reactors are shielded from the true cost of a major accident or terror attack by the sneaky Price-Anderson Act, which forces victims and taxpayers to bear the liability.

If terrorists ever strike an American reactor—old or new—the owners will be shielded from responsibility, while you and your family die from the ultimate radioactive nightmare.

Harvey Wasserman, a history professor at two Ohio colleges, is also senior editor at Free Press, senior adviser to Greenpeace USA and the Nuclear Information & Resource Service, and the author of several books about nuclear power and renewable energy. For 30 years he has been a strong force in the grassroots antinuclear movement.

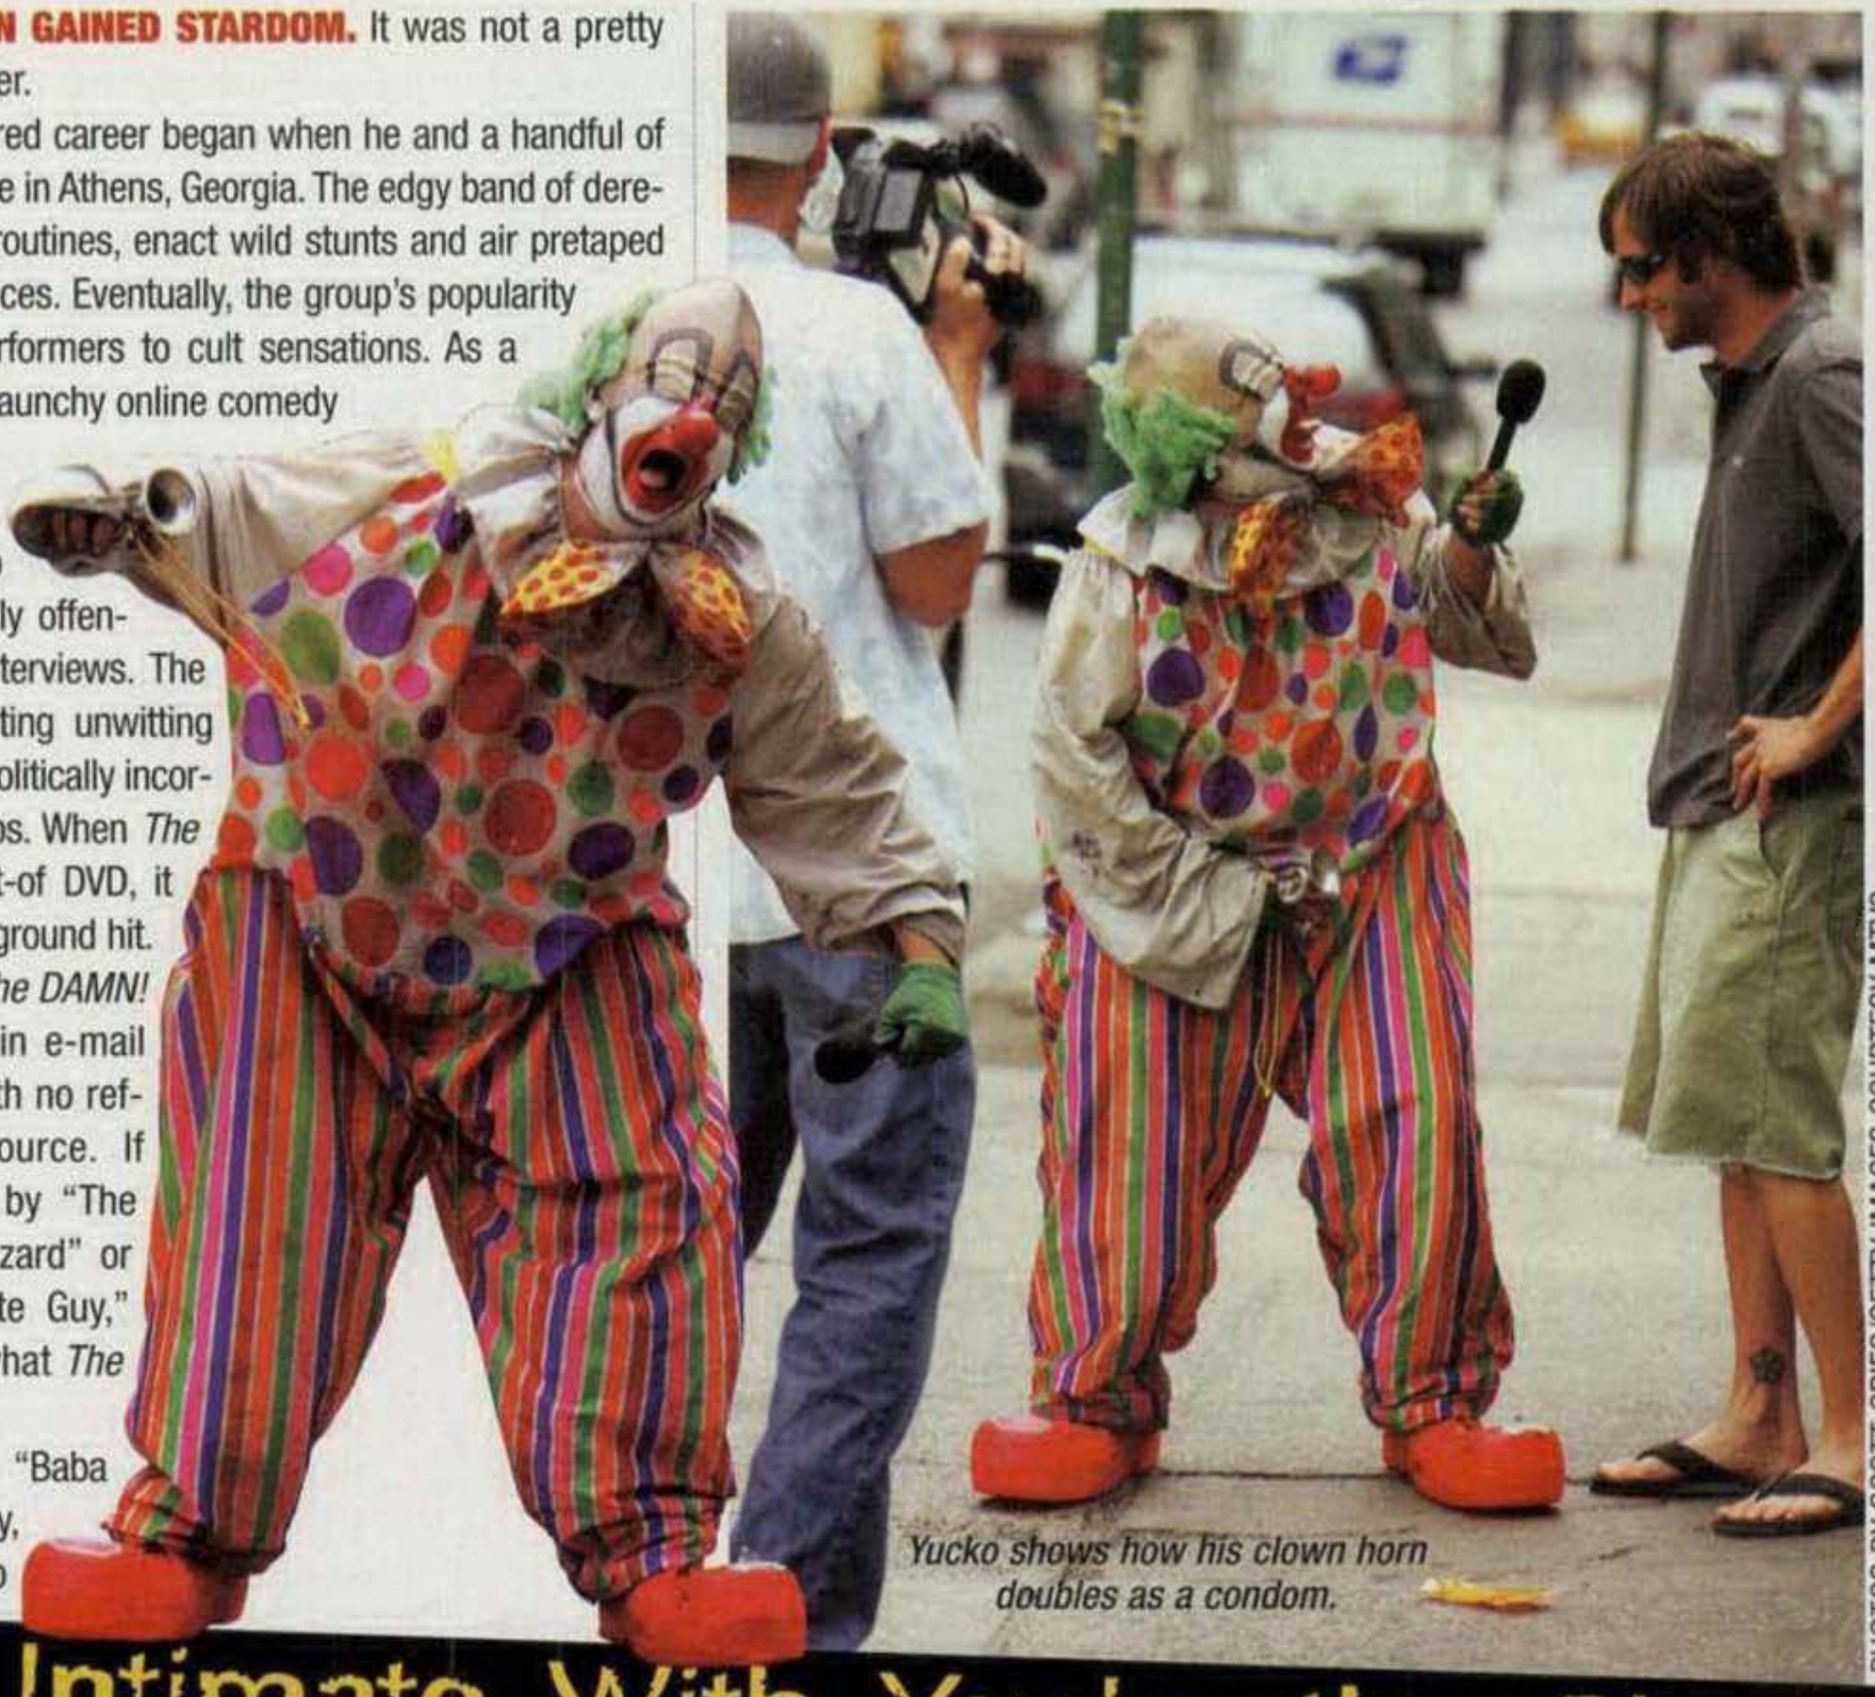
Getting Intimate With Yucko the Clown

BY RO HURLEY



Yucko shows how his clown horn doubles as a condom.

IN 2001 YUCKO THE CLOWN GAINED STARDOM. It was not a pretty sight—or smell, for that matter.

This crusty clown's checkered career began when he and a handful of friends formed a comedy troupe in Athens, Georgia. The edgy band of derelicts would perform stand-up routines, enact wild stunts and air pretaped skits for coast-to-coast audiences. Eventually, the group's popularity propelled them from local performers to cult sensations. As a result, The DAMN! Show—a raunchy online comedy venue—was born.

Given free rein on the outrageous new program, Yucko became notorious for his highly offensive "Clown on the Street" interviews. The snippets featured Yucko insulting unwitting pedestrians with a barrage of politically incorrect and occasionally racist jabs. When The DAMN! Show released a best-of DVD, it immediately became an underground hit.

Clips and sketches from The DAMN! Show disc have popped up in e-mail in-boxes across the globe with no reference to their original source. If you've ever been barraged by "The Nut Bra," "The Gooks of Hazard" or "How to Dance Like a White Guy," you've caught a glimpse of what The DAMN! Show is all about.

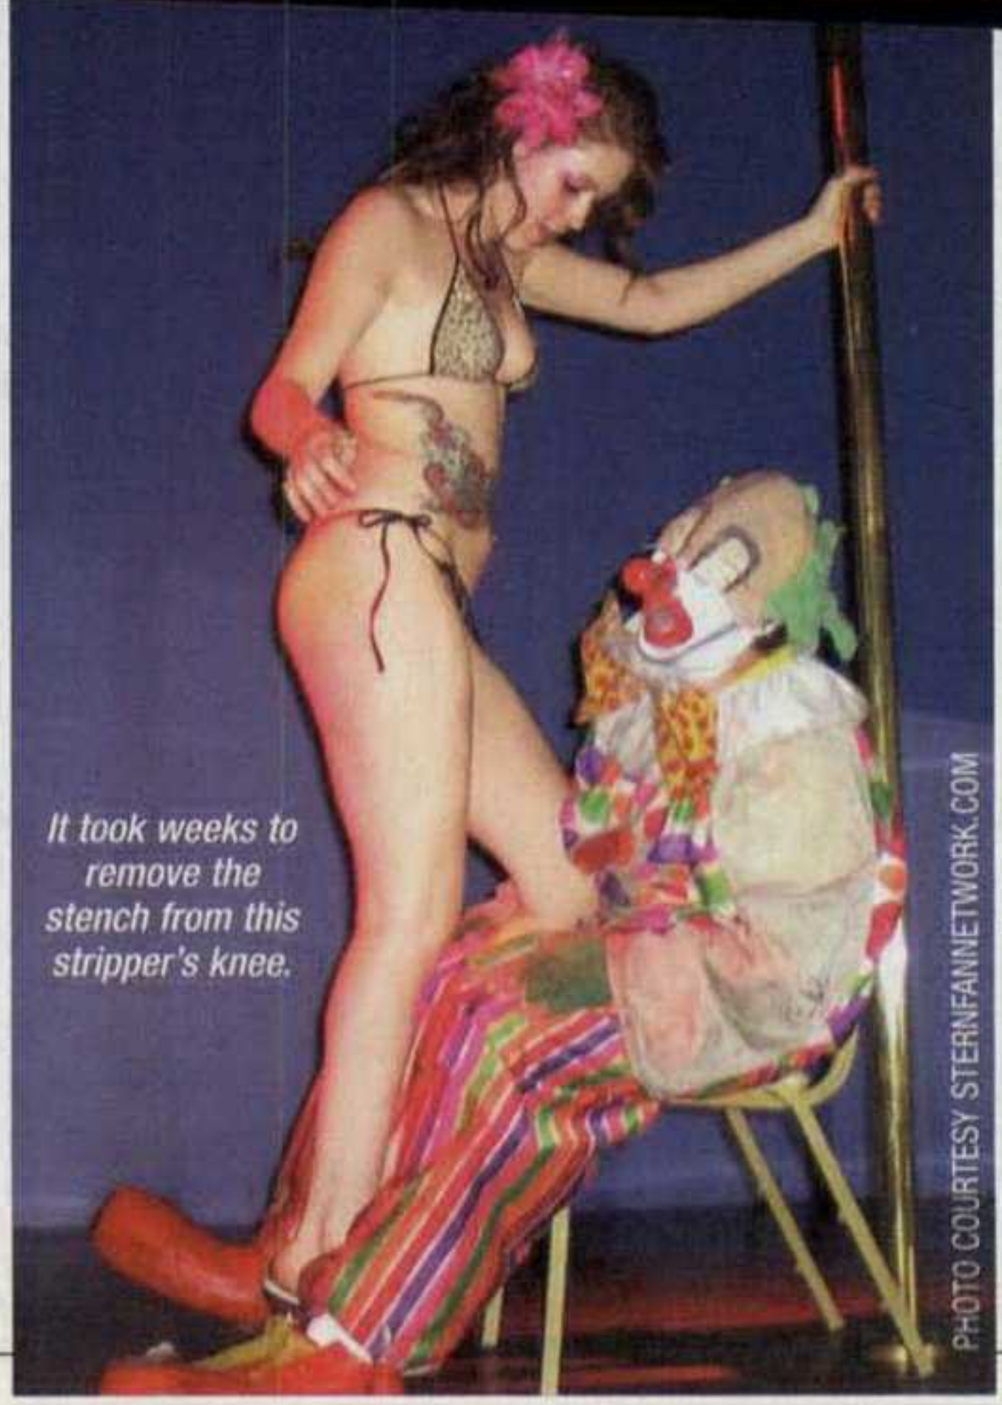
Eventually producer Gary "Baba Booey" Dell'Abate invited a filthy, drunken Yucko the Clown into the studio of legendary radio talk show host Howard Stern. Yucko was an instant hit with Stern fans, and from that point on he became a frequent guest and was often featured on Stern's E! cable program.

As a matter of fact, Stern thought so highly of Yucko, he selected the irreverent clown to compete in a contest. The grand prize—a three-month steady gig with The Howard Stern Show. After working for a week in the studio, Yucko landed enough audience votes to earn an impressive third-place finish out of ten eager contestants.

The clown's "talents" eventually drew the attention of MTV2 executives, who gave the green light for Stankervision. Yucko (a/k/a Roger Black) recruited a pool of alumni from The DAMN! Show, but high ratings and critical acclaim weren't enough to keep it on the air. After just one season, Stankervision was canceled in late 2005.

That setback hasn't stopped the world's most disgusting harlequin from mellowing out somewhat for the following exclusive interview.



It took weeks to remove the stench from this stripper's knee.

HUSTLER: Even though Stankervision is off the air, were you happy with the first season?

YUCKO THE CLOWN: At first I was worried that by going more mainstream, my dialogue would be censored. But the folks at MTV2 were cool about letting me do what I do best—piss off strangers!

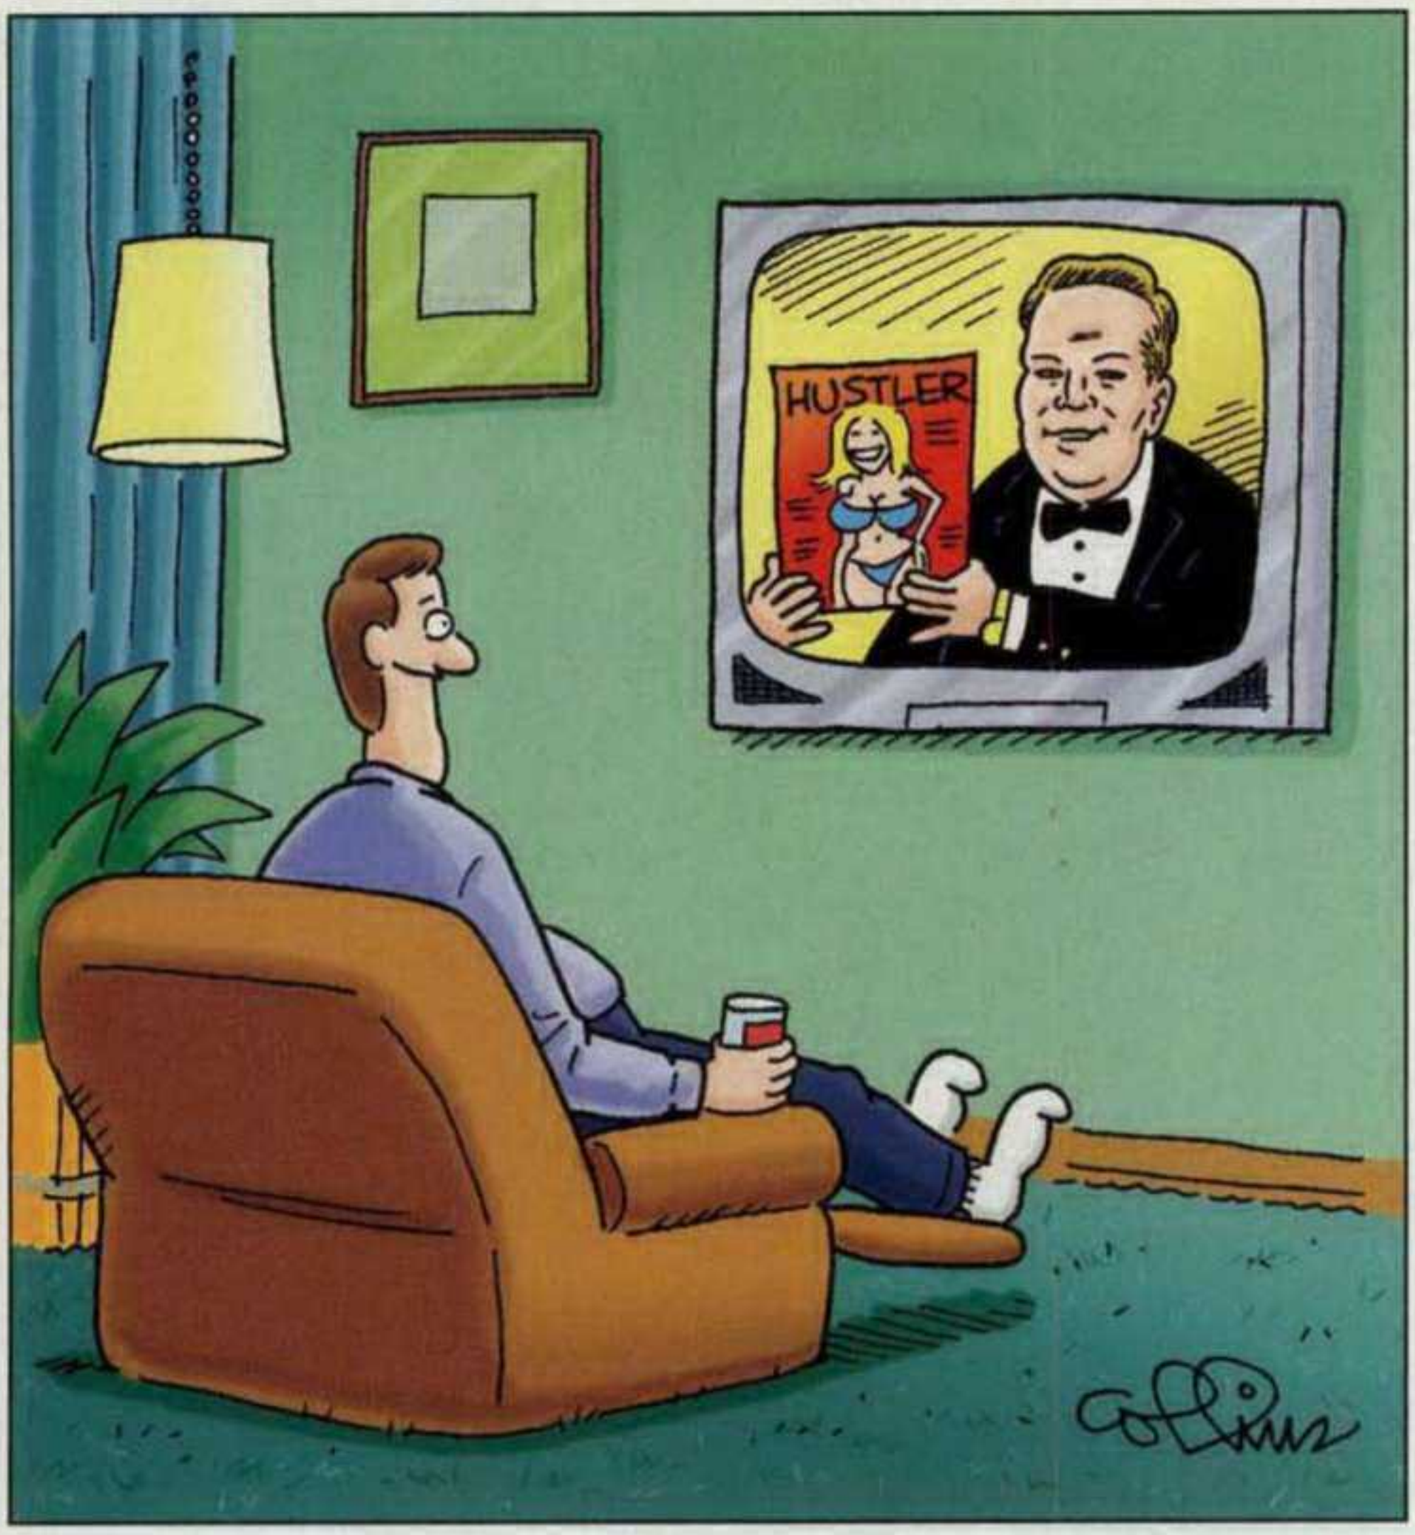
Your "Clown on the Street" bits can be extremely offensive. Have you ever been threatened by a pedestrian you wanted to interview?

Not really. That's the beauty of the clown suit. You cannot take what I say that seriously.

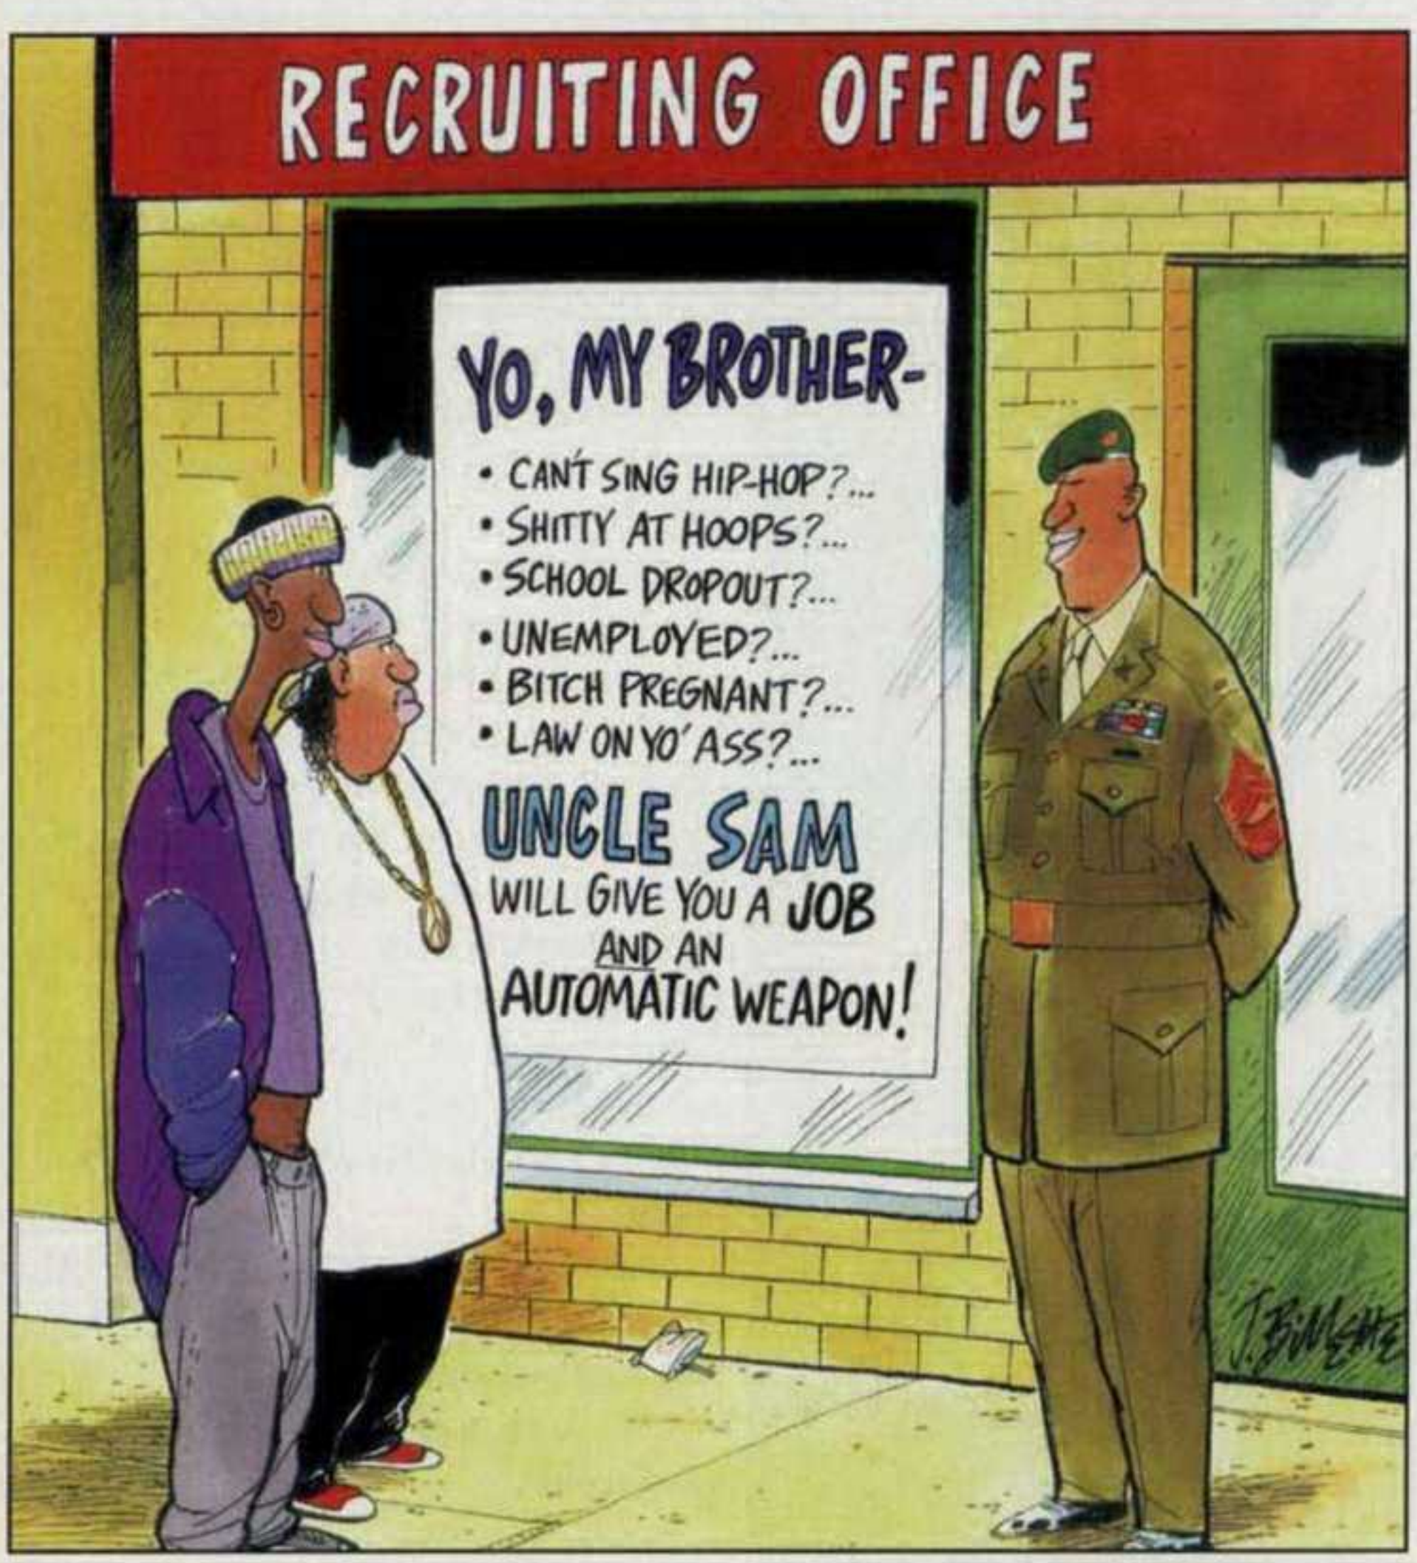
Have your insults ever caused anyone to cry?

A couple of people, girls mostly. They get real sensitive, especially when I joke about their friggin' weight!

Did you go to clown school, or are you self-taught?



"Ask your doctor if extra-strength pussy is right for you!"



YUCKIN' IT UP

I was a stand-up comic; the clown suit came around after the JFK Jr. [plane] crash, when I wanted to go onstage and tell all of these really offensive jokes and not be identified later!

What paved the way for your first appearance on The Howard Stern Show in 2001?

I ran out onto the field at a Braves-Mets game and sent in the audio to Stern's producers. I must have called the show every day for like a year, and then finally they called me!

Could you have become a household name without Howard Stern?

I owe a great deal of my success to Howard. He would plug The DAMN! Show every time I went on. He put me on the air when no one else would touch me.

You spent a week working on the Stern show. How would you describe the experience?

Grueling! I usually go to bed at four in the morning, not get up for work!

When you were ordered by Stern's general manager to tone down your act to appease the FCC, did you feel cheated?

Somewhat, but with Stern's move to Sirius Satellite Radio, I hope I never feel like my clowny hands are tied again!

What do you wear underneath the clown suit?

Not much! Whenever I'm out in the streets of Las Vegas or Cancun, Mexico, I'm sweating my clowny nuts off!

Have you had sex while wearing the clown suit?

C'mon, you can probably smell this suit through a phone line. Not many women are clamoring to fuck a dirty clown who smells like puke, sweat and cigarettes.

So your costume smells horrible, but rumor has it you'll never wash it. Why not?

I'm kinda like those athletes who don't wash their gym socks during the playoffs.

Have you ever been arrested while in costume?

Yeah, as I mentioned before, when I ran onto the baseball field. I got charged with criminal trespassing, disorderly conduct and a few other things. I recommend never going to a lockup in a clown suit!

What was that like?

Going to jail in a clown suit is like Bea Arthur naked. It ain't pretty.

Have you ever watched "clown porn"?

No! That's just ridiculous.

When you're on the road, you use a lot of sex toys in your stand-up act. Does this ever cause embarrassment while going through airport security?

Yeah, imagine having a suitcase full of clown shoes, horns and dildos! When the security folks at JFK Airport see and smell what's in my suitcase, they always ask, "What are you doing with all this?" I always yell back, "I'm going to work, prick!"

When you die, do you want to be buried in your clown suit?

You're a friggin' idiot!

THE TRIPLET BOOBJOB STORY

BY SUE THOMPSON

Sisters

Meet the sexy Carrazana triplets, who got implants to turn their tiny A cups into something to talk about.

SINCE THE AGE OF 15 the flat-chested, identical triplets Stephanie, Becky and Tiffanie Carrazana were convinced that they'd never develop the cleavage they desired. The Miami residents loved the same food, dressed in the same clothes, had the same butterfly tattoo on their backs and even studied the same college courses. So when they decided to boost their tiny 34A chests with implants, they saw only one way to do it—together!

Despite their Latina good looks, the sisters fretted about their shortcoming and dreamed of having bigger tits. Now the gorgeous girls, who at birth weighed less than a pound each, have some serious bustlines. They are brimming with confidence and have never been happier.

"We had fit bodies," Stephanie explains, "but without the breasts it didn't look like we had any shape. We were quite ashamed by the way we looked, and it zapped our confidence."

When the Carrazana triplets graduated from high school, they made a pact to save as much hard-earned cash as they could to pay for their respective $4,500 breast augmentations. It meant long hours working part-time as waitresses, while at the same time funding their college educations.

With enough money finally in the bank, the sisters visited the office of Miami's leading plastic surgeon, Dr. Jose M. Soler-Baillo. Although they sought identical chest sizes, Dr. Baillo advised that each girl work with her own body.

Stephanie and Tiffanie went from A cups to C, while Becky boosted her chest to a B cup. The operations took just over an hour, but the girls needed several days to recover before they could see the full effect. Stephanie and Tiffanie went under the knife prior to Becky, who delayed undergoing the procedure until after their 21st birthday.

The girls now feel complete.

"I nursed my sisters," Becky recalls. "They had a lot of pain after the operation, but they were very brave."

"At first," Tiffanie says, "it felt like having an elephant strapped to our chests. We could see how they were going to look, but they were huge to start with because of the swelling. We both said, 'Wow, aren't they big.' But after a few days they started to go down. They look really great, and we couldn't be more pleased. They have given us newfound confidence. Before, we wanted to cover up our bodies and hide away, but now we want to show them off."

Becky, who spent some of her operation funds on a car, had to save a little longer and felt left out when her sisters had huge breasts and she didn't. "I could see how good they looked," Becky says. "How [the new breasts] showed off their great figures. I just couldn't wait to get the op' done."

"Our new boobs are the best present in the world!" Stephanie exclaims. "We did it for us and no one else, but our boyfriends love them as much as we do. At last, we feel like complete women."

The Carrazana triplets have been in front of the camera from day one. Even as babies they received plenty of job offers modeling clothes and acting in TV commercials. Their last job was a Crest toothpaste ad, but they stopped their television work to concentrate on graduating high school. Now the attractive trio wants to revive its modeling career to pay for college. Stephanie and Tiffanie have aspirations of becoming pediatric nurses, while Becky wants to work in obstetrics. Ultimately the girls have dreams of becoming doctors.

EXCLUSIVE!

"It's a tough call," says Becky. "If our modeling career takes off, we'll have to choose. Our mom would love to see us modeling. Our parents always knew we were unhappy with our bodies, so they were very supportive of our decision to have the operations."

The girls are inseparable and wouldn't dream of modeling on their own. When they were growing up, they shared a bedroom. Even today they're happiest when together. These days, only Becky lives at home, while Stephanie and Tiffanie reside nearby with their boyfriends. The wild and crazy sisters have even been known to share significant others.

"We all went out with one boy at school called Alex," Tiffanie reveals. "He was very cute."

As would be expected, their identical looks have caused a few problems...and led to the occasional falling out. Once, an ex-boyfriend of Tiffanie's kissed Becky, not realizing he had the wrong sister.

"I was very naughty and let him kiss me," Becky admits. "Tiffanie was upset, understandably, but she seemed more annoyed that he hadn't realized his mistake."

"We share friends," Tiffanie says, "and we all have to approve of our boyfriends, otherwise we wouldn't go out with them."

In the interest of saving time and energy, we suggest the Carrazana girls triple-team one guy at the same time—he won't complain.

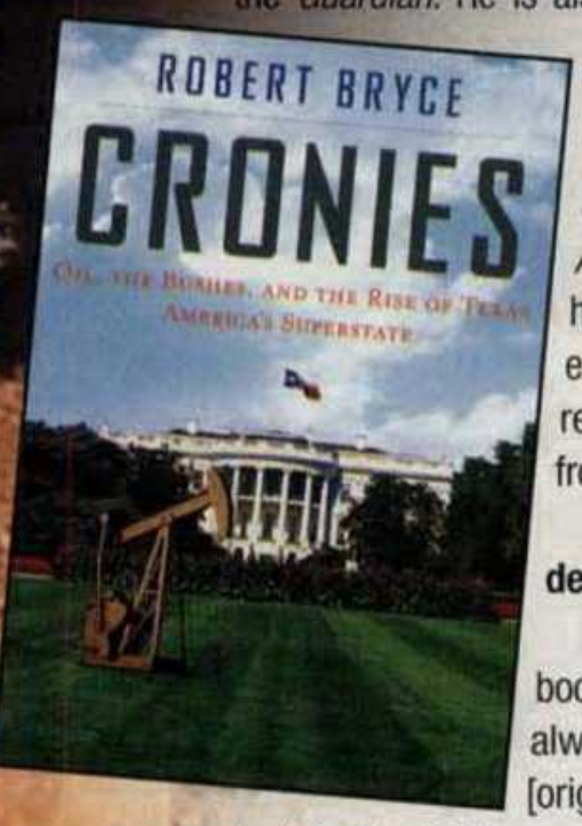
ROBERT BRYCE EXPOSES THE TRUTH ABOUT TEXAS



TEXAS JOURNALIST ROBERT BRYCE, who for years has tracked both the energy business and George W. Bush, has written hard-hitting articles for such prestigious publications as Atlantic Monthly, the Washington Post and the Guardian. He is also the managing editor of Energy Tribune and the author of Pipe Dreams: Greed, Ego and the Death of Enron, which was named one of 2002's best nonfiction books by Publishers Weekly. His latest work—Cronies: Oil, the Bushes and the Rise of Texas, America's Superstate—details how W's bailiwick has dominated U.S. politics for decades. Now, in an exclusive Q&A, Bryce candidly discusses Big Oil's far-reaching influence and various figures who benefit from their allegiance to the President.

HUSTLER: Tell us about Cronies and why you decided to write it.

ROBERT BRYCE: Cronies is an outgrowth of my first book, Pipe Dreams, which was about Enron. I've always been fascinated by the energy business. I'm [originally] from Tulsa, Oklahoma, which for a brief time back in the 1920s was known as the oil capital of the world. So I've written a fair amount about the energy business. As I finished Pipe Dreams, I kept looking at Enron and thinking, Well, what made Enron unique? I realized Enron was important because it was in the energy business. And it was interconnected with the Bushes, really beginning when [Enron chairman] Ken Lay and George Bush the First were living in Houston. As Bush Senior was running for President, Lay was one of his early donors. So I began to look at Enron as a political force, and that led me to other issues that all tie together in terms of what I call the Texas Crony Network. And I thought this was clearly an important story, one that helps explain why two of the last three Presidents—and three of the last eight—have been Texans. I wanted to explore that issue of oil and political power in my book.

How do Texas oil companies influence politics?

[Without] the oil business, the Bushes would never have been successful in politics. But that's also true of Lyndon Johnson, particularly with his 1948 race against Coke Stevenson. That race, which allowed [LBJ's] rise to power, was funded by independent oilmen who could supply hundreds of thousands of dollars in cash to Johnson's campaign. Look at that history and compare it with Johnson's relationship with George Brown and Brown & Root. Then look at George W. Bush and Dick Cheney, knowing that Brown & Root is now part of Halliburton. But the cronies we saw in the Johnson Administration pale in comparison to anything we've seen with this current one. There is no administration in recent American history that even comes remotely close to the crony-capitalism Bush and Cheney practice.

Is it fair to say that the oil industry dominates American politics?

It's clear that the industry has tremendous political power. My effort was really to look at the practical aspects of that power and the key players involved. One of them, who we have to look at, is James A. Baker III. He is of counsel to Baker & Botts, a law firm that has history in Texas going back more than a century. It's the oldest law firm in Texas and the second-oldest law firm west of the Mississippi River. One of Baker & Botts's clients is Halliburton. Call it coincidence, but this is an extremely powerful law firm that has been doing oil and railroad law for 100 years in Texas. I bring that up to point out a nexus of people involved here, and they deserve a more public airing of their interconnections. James A. Baker III, Dick Cheney and Halliburton are all part of that.

INTERVIEW BY BRUCE DAVID & HANS FEUERSINGER

AS CRONY CONNECTION

Part of a power grab?

A key thing that is forgotten today in discussion of this administration is its reach for power, its imperial attitude. Cheney is still on the payroll of Halliburton today! I wrote a story for the Guardian a couple of years ago, and in Cheney's Public Financial Disclosure Report—which was released on May 15, 2001—Cheney says, "Halliburton will pay the 1999 deferred compensation balance over a period of five years," which began in January of '01. We're now in 2006, and Cheney's still being paid by Halliburton under his deferred compensation plan. I mean, what country in the world would allow a major government contractor, like Halliburton, to pay money to the second-most-powerful executive in the country?

Wasn't that money earned prior to his post as Vice President?

Why didn't he cash out? Why not cut all ties and remove all the connections to a private company that is also a government contractor? Because they don't think they have to play by the old rules. What would happen if this were the case in Indonesia today? You don't think this would be a scandal in Britain or France? It is deferred compensation. He said, "Rather than pay this to me now, in 1999, pay it to me over a period of five years." Well, why not [get out] in January 2001, when he's about to be put into office? I wrote a piece in July 2004 about Cheney's ineptitude as the chairman and CEO of Halliburton. Nearly every deal Cheney touched while he was at the helm of Halliburton resulted in a scandal. The acquisition of Dresser brought on huge asbestos liabilities, and the Barracuda-Caratinga Project in Brazil that they were producing for Petrobras brought on the Nigerian fraud scandal.

Sure, Halliburton has recovered nicely since then, partly by having huge government contracts in Iraq. But the sad fact is Cheney had no business being at Halliburton. He was appointed. He got that job because he was part of the crony club. It's a point I make in the book, and I think it is universally accepted now.

Is it too cynical to believe that Cheney might be further compensated by Halliburton?

A membership on a corporate board would probably be pretty good [for him]. Neither Bill Clinton nor George Bush the First have joined corporate boards, but, I mean, clearly that's one option. Bush and Cheney will probably have so much money by then, they won't need the work. But Cheney will still be getting a pension from Union Pacific Railroad, so he is hardly cutting his ties with other corporate directorships.

He was involved in the Gulf deal, but never joined their board, and he did act as an emissary of sorts for Peter Munk of the Canadian company Barrick Gold. He also, of course, did fund-raising for the Carlyle Group, which interestingly enough is another nexus of the crony club. The other person who had been working for Carlyle, but no longer is, was James A. Baker III, former Secretary of State. The point now, as we look at the Abramoff scandal, is to look at all the Texas crony connections. DeLay is really the focus of the whole Abramoff deal and is clearly dirty. He's decided not to run for House Majority Leader again, and he's under indictment. I mean this is part of the corruption that has also been part of Texas history.

Look at the Silverado savings and loan disaster [involving Neil Bush], which I write about in Cronies. There's a mess that cost American taxpayers $300 billion, and half of the losses were here in Texas. Why did it happen? Is it a coincidence that it happened while Bush the First was Vice President and James A. Baker III was the Treasury Secretary? I think they certainly delayed revealing a lot of information until after Bush Senior won the 1988 election. It was 1989 when the bill really came due. Gee, what a surprise! What's happening in Iraq [harkens back to] the long history Texas companies have had in trying to be involved in the Persian Gulf. Now it's Halliburton doing the reconstruction work there, a fact that is not surprising. It was Halliburton back in the early '70s that built the new oil terminals for the Baathists so that Iraq could export oil into the Persian Gulf.

Is an oil company's patronage of a politician a conflict of interest?

It's not any great news that oil companies give to our politicians. What's important is who's [involved]. Enron was, until the '04 election, George W. Bush's biggest career patron. This was a company that clearly put a lot of money on him. And Cheney, of course, had strong backing from the superconservative Republicans. The important thing is to keep drawing the connections between all the different players and really hold them out and say, "Does this wash?" And I think in many cases it doesn't. The Vice President is still getting payments from some of these companies!

BLOOD FOR GOLD

The buried story of Bush Senior and Barrick Corporation

YOU'VE PROBABLY NEVER HEARD OF BARRICK CORPORATION, and the Bushes would like to keep it that way. Bushco's ties with the Canadian gold-mining outfit are a prime illustration of what's wrong with campaign financing in this country: Donations are openly traded for political favors.

With Barrick, headquartered in the province of Ontario, it couldn't be more obvious. Just prior to George H.W. Bush being booted from the White House by voters in 1992, the Interior Department quietly streamlined the little-known 1872 Mining Law, originally designed to help gold-fevered prospectors stake claims on their tiny plots. The procedural change allowed Barrick's U.S. unit to fast-track a claim to the largest gold-ore find in America, a Nevada mine valued at $10 billion. Barrick paid the U.S. Treasury less than $10,000 for the land.

To reward the ex-President for such a lucrative deal, Barrick pumped nearly $100,000 into GOP coffers during the 1997-2000 election cycles after hiring him as Honorary Senior Advisor to its International Advisory Board.

To recap: Bush Senior changes the mining law, Barrick cashes in big and then puts him on the payroll, donating buckets of cash to the Republican Party. Eureka, America gets shafted again!

But the Barrick-Bush saga of shame stretches back even farther: Barrick was originally co-financed by Adnan Khashoggi, a Saudi arms dealer tied to the Iran-Contra scandal. During criminal proceedings, Bush Senior made sure Khashoggi's arms-trafficking co-conspirators got pardoned, and the billionaire walked away free.

Once on the Barrick payroll, Bush Senior started whoring himself out to his despot buddies. After a grab at a huge goldfield in Indonesia failed to pan out, Bush hooked Barrick cronies up with an old golfing buddy—the cutthroat Congolese dictator Mobutu. However, that venture hit the skids when anti-Mobutu rebels in then-Zaire decided it was time to oust the tyrant.

By the mid-'90s Barrick was poised to buy fellow Canadian goldmonger Sutton Resources, which held digging rights to one of East Africa's biggest goldfields, located in Tanzania. But there was a problem: Tens of thousands of local prospectors were already working the goldfield with legal claims to their stakes. Sutton Resources (possibly prompted by Barrick) sent in bulldozers, flanked by military thugs, to flatten housing and equipment and to fill in pits. According to reports, as many as 50 miners were allegedly buried alive.

Barrick denies any responsibility for the gruesome mess, and its official Web site proclaims a commitment toward working "in a profitable and socially responsible manner." Meanwhile, Barrick continues to deflect accusations of everything from poisoning mining areas with cyanide and mercury to gold-price manipulation.

But in Barrick's version of events—not to mention the mainstream media's—all these dirty tricks never happened. If it were up to the company itself, the truth would stay as buried and forgotten as those Tanzanian prospectors.

In terms of U.S. policy, how important is Halliburton to the war in Iraq?

Halliburton is critical in terms of what the government is able to do. The U.S. military can't do without Halliburton. Like it or not, Halliburton and the government have become interchangeable. And that's the punch line here. As the government and the company's interests become so closely aligned, [you have to ask] where does one start and the other end? And that's why these issues about deferred compensation and interconnecting relationships matter.

Can you be more specific?

I'll give you another Halliburton connection, one that is worthy of more discussion and yet has been largely ignored. The President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board is a group of citizens who are appointed by the President. There's no Congressional approval involved, and they can be anyone. The President appoints them, and they can have access to virtually every bit of secret information that the U.S. Intelligence community has. Their security clearances exceed most of the members of Congress. One of the board members is Ray Hunt, a Dallas billionaire who's long been associated with the Bush family. Ray Hunt sits on the board of Halliburton. Where do Hunt's connections with the secret intelligence he gets from the government end? Where does that duty end and his duty to Halliburton end? Or where does his duty to his own company, Hunt Oil, end? This is one of the largest independent oil companies in the world. Hunt is now starting the L&G project on the Yemeni Coast, 200 miles from Abnu, where the U.S.S. Cole was bombed by al Qaeda. Do you think Ray Hunt has a few extra uses for secret intelligence to further his own business interests? I think he might be able to find another use for that [data].

If it turns out that American oil companies can't get their hands on Iraqi oil, if Iraq moves closer to Iran than to the U.S., what's in store for everyone involved?

Iraq desperately needs to recover. So, in a strange way, the best hope for a democracy—or at least some stability in Iraq right now—lies with Halliburton, which is a very capable company. It can get Iraq's oil infrastructure rehabilitated and working again. It's just that the security is so bad, they can't move forward. They're paralyzed. Roadside bombs endanger the security of the whole situation, the pipelines are being regularly bombed, and refineries are only running at half capacity. They're importing huge amounts of motor fuel. The situation overall in Iraq is bad, in large part, because the energy infrastructure is in tatters. But if Halliburton can get Iraq's oil industry up and running, Iraq will be all right.

Yet Bush is telling the American people the situation is getting better.

I don't listen to what he says anymore. (Laughs.) That's not true. I listen, but it makes me grimace.

How have these energy companies, with their close ties to Bush and Cheney, etc., influenced the overall energy policy?

This administration has no energy policy. The Bush Administration, like many administrations before it, never developed a forward-looking energy policy. And Congress, I can't leave Congress out of this. But the solutions for America are obvious. They've been obvious for a long time. There are three solutions in terms of oil consumption—CAFÉ standards, CAFÉ standards, CAFÉ standards [short for Corporate Average Fuel Economy]—which means fuel efficiency. Those standards have to be raised. And/or we have to come up with a tax regime that is reasonable in terms of putting a higher tax on the big fuel-consuming vehicles like the Hummer.

But the lack of energy policy is not a surprise coming from a bunch of Texas oil guys, right? They want to drill. And that's what they're doing. But they're missing a great opportunity to really push toward solar. Bush will not be able to point to a single example of an accomplishment. I've been working on another book and reading Osama bin Laden's statements, speeches and interviews. Bin Laden is saying, "Oh, my God, we couldn't have asked for more from Bush. The response that we got was exactly what we wanted." Not only is this war going to bankrupt the U.S. in a financial sense, it is destroying the American military.

How do Texans regard George W. Bush?

I think that there is a growing sense of disenchantment with this administration among people in Texas and elsewhere, and it is growing by the day. The indictment of Scooter Libby, this whole business with Karl Rove's involvement in the Valerie Plame affair; dirty footprints are all over that. This is a profoundly corrupt administration, and it is tragic in many ways to (continued on page 81)

"Yeah, I'm a fairy. You gotta fuckin' problem with that?!"

HOT FLICKS

BY KEITH VALCOURT

THIS MONTH'S COLLECTION is a mixed bag of movie star milkbags and a singing superstar's super-nice crotch shot.

We've been waiting patiently for Hollywood's latest "It" girl, Lindsay Lohan, to let one of her well-developed titties fly. Our prayers were finally answered at a recent General Motors gala as the Herbie Fully Loaded babe showed that her breasts are fully loaded. We hope this is just a glance of things to come from the 20-year-old.

Reportedly, Miss Lohan said she would be willing to do a nude scene if it would win her an Academy Award. We hate to break the news to Lindsay that that's not how it works. Although, if she's willing to do a hard-core sex scene, we could probably get her an AVN Award. Let us know what you think, Lindsay.

Also providing titillation is actress Hilary Swank, who recently separated from her husband, a/k/a Rob Lowe's little brother Chad. Yeah, like we didn't see that coming from a mile away. While his career highlight was portraying country crooner John Denver in a made-for-TV flick, Hilary has garnered two Academy Awards (Boys Don't Cry and Million Dollar Baby). Caught stepping out at a New York City benefit, Ms. Swank is wearing a see-through top that thankfully leaves nothing to the imagination. We love the fact that you can clearly see her "Million Dollar Boobies."

Finally, we have Beyoncé Knowles, lead singer of the recently disbanded R&B group Destiny's Child rocking the microphone and giving her all (including a peak at her undies) for an adoring crowd. One look at this shot makes us really want a piece of that chocolate pie. We mean cake. No, pie. Sorry, Jay-Z. We know that's your girl and all.

Southerner Bettie Page was a bondage queen extraordinaire, but she was still sweet and innocent at heart.

Rediscovering the Dark Angel

ith a Hollywood biopic, retro DVDs and a gallery's exhibit of lost images, iconic

Bettiemania

BY TOM FARRELL

EVEN BEFORE ITS THEATRICAL RELEASE EARLIER THIS YEAR, The Notorious Bettie Page rekindled Americans' love affair with the most popular pinup queen of all time. Ultimately, Mary Harron's ballyhooed film—with Gretchen Mol in the title role—proved to be a disappointment. Among its harshest critics was now-83-year-old Page herself.

"She was definitely not happy with the movie," reports TABOO Magazine Executive Editor Ernest Greene, who along with Page and others attended a private screening. "She was shaking her cane at the screen and yelling."

Gretchen Mol as the latest Bettie.

Thankfully, other Bettie Page offerings have hit the streets of late. Cult Epics rereleased a two-disc, limited-edition version of Bettie Page: Dark Angel, starring Paige Richards as the photogenic darling. The 2005 film chronicles the final years of Page's career and re-creates, in director Irving Klaw's original style, many of her classic bondage setups. As an added treat, the second disc is packed with original footage of Richards posing nude for legendary pinup photographer Bunny Yeager.

Image Entertainment and Something Weird have rereleased the classics Varietease and Teaserama on a single DVD. Produced and directed by Irving Klaw, the throwback footage has Bettie teaming up with burlesque queens Lily St. Cyr and Tempest Storm for some hot bump-and-grind dance numbers.

Fans should also check out Cult Epics' The Bettie Page Collection, a three-DVD box set. Included are Disc 1: Bettie Page: Pin-Up Queen, featuring a detailed biography and written commentary by the lady herself; Disc 2: Bettie Page: Bondage Queen is packed with provocative photos, plus a history of S&M and fetishism; Disc 3: 100 Girls by Bunny Yeager contains a vast selection of stills shot by the nude model-turned-shutterbug way back when, including several of Page.

Finally, Bettiemania has reached art circles. At the Clair Obscur gallery in Los Angeles, Nico Bruisma recently presented "Bettie Page, Dark Angel: Photographs by Irving Klaw," a collection of prints that captured the charismatic model at the height of her remarkable career.

That these images still exist is miraculous. In 1955 Klaw—the longtime operator of a mail-order photography business—faced a handful of federal charges, including felony conspiracy to distribute obscene materials through the U.S. mail. Rather than take a trip to the big house, Klaw agreed to destroy incriminating films and negatives. The bondage maestro died in 1966, but unknown to anyone, Paula Klaw (his sister and colleague) had rescued a portion of the company's prized inventory, notably many of the Bettie Page photos still circulating today.

The Ultimate Fuck

Give Her A Cum-Drenching She'll Never Forget!

Learning "The Ropes"...

The letters keep pouring in, written by women of all ages, about a supplement that has made their sex lives "explosive" (literally). I'd like to share one, from a loyal reader...

Rebecca writes:

Nancy, my boyfriend has always satisfied me sexually. With an ample cock-size, average endurance, and creative oral technique, he almost never fails to get me off. But what I experienced the night he returned home from a business trip in Europe was the surprise of my life—a fucking I will never forget, and an orgasm that no man before him has ever come close to equaling.

Since I love to suck cock, the second my boyfriend dropped his luggage I stripped off his clothes and proceeded to please him with my best welcome-home blowjob.

Before long my wet mouth had him pumping gob after hot gob down my throat and on my face. With a fistful of throbbing cock, I held on for dear life as he unloaded his sweet jism; these were "power throbs" that kept launching massive amounts of cum. I've never seen anything like it—a man having a multiple! I was so totally turned on being nearly drowned with his superhuman load. And it didn't stop there! He stayed erect, throwing me down on the floor and pounding my twat until we both had simultaneous, earth-shattering orgasms, practically causing both of us to pass out. The rest of the evening and throughout the week we fucked ourselves into a frenzy; his recovery time between these super-charged orgasms was that of a teenage boy.

Since that night, all I can think of is sucking and fucking my new "power lover" all hours of the day. Finally, curiosity got the best of me, so I asked what had turned him into such a fuck machine. His answer: He had learned "The Ropes."

Turns out my boyfriend had spent an evening in Europe with a Swedish nutritionist and his wife of 20 years. The couple was openly sexual and couldn't keep their hands off each other, so my boyfriend asked them their secret. The nutritionist explained he regularly took a natural supplement, and gave my boyfriend a month's supply, telling him it would teach him "the ropes" of great sex.

The supply is about to run out, and we want to know where we can buy this incredible enhancement. Do you know if this product is available in the States?

Rebecca M.
San Diego, CA

Rebecca, as I've mentioned in previous columns, I do know all about what your last boyfriend used to enhance his orgasms. I'm happy to report that across the U.S. and Canada more and more men are finding out and using this unique supplement, learning that not only do they themselves benefit sexually, so too do their partners.

The contractions and release during male orgasm can be multiplied using an all-natural product called Serogen. Although formulated to trigger stronger, longer orgasmic experiences by strengthening the vas deferens muscle in men, an added bonus—from a woman's perspective—is that these powerful contractions men achieve while in the throes of an orgasm can induce an intense, female climax.

Moreover, the term "ropes" Rebecca mentions in her letter is actually European slang for the added contractions and heightened release that cause these rope-like sensations during male orgasm.

As far as finding Serogen in the States, I know of just one importer—Somalab. The company has a product line for men that includes newly added Serogen-SP, a premium blend of the original. If interested in purchasing Serogen or SP, Somalab can be contacted toll-free at 1-866-SOMALAB. Orders can also be placed through Somalab's informational Web site: www.learntheropes.net.

GETTING A RIMJOB

PHOTOGRAPHY BY MATTI KLATT

Since rims are so popular in the rap world, we decided to compose this pictorial's text in a rhyme.

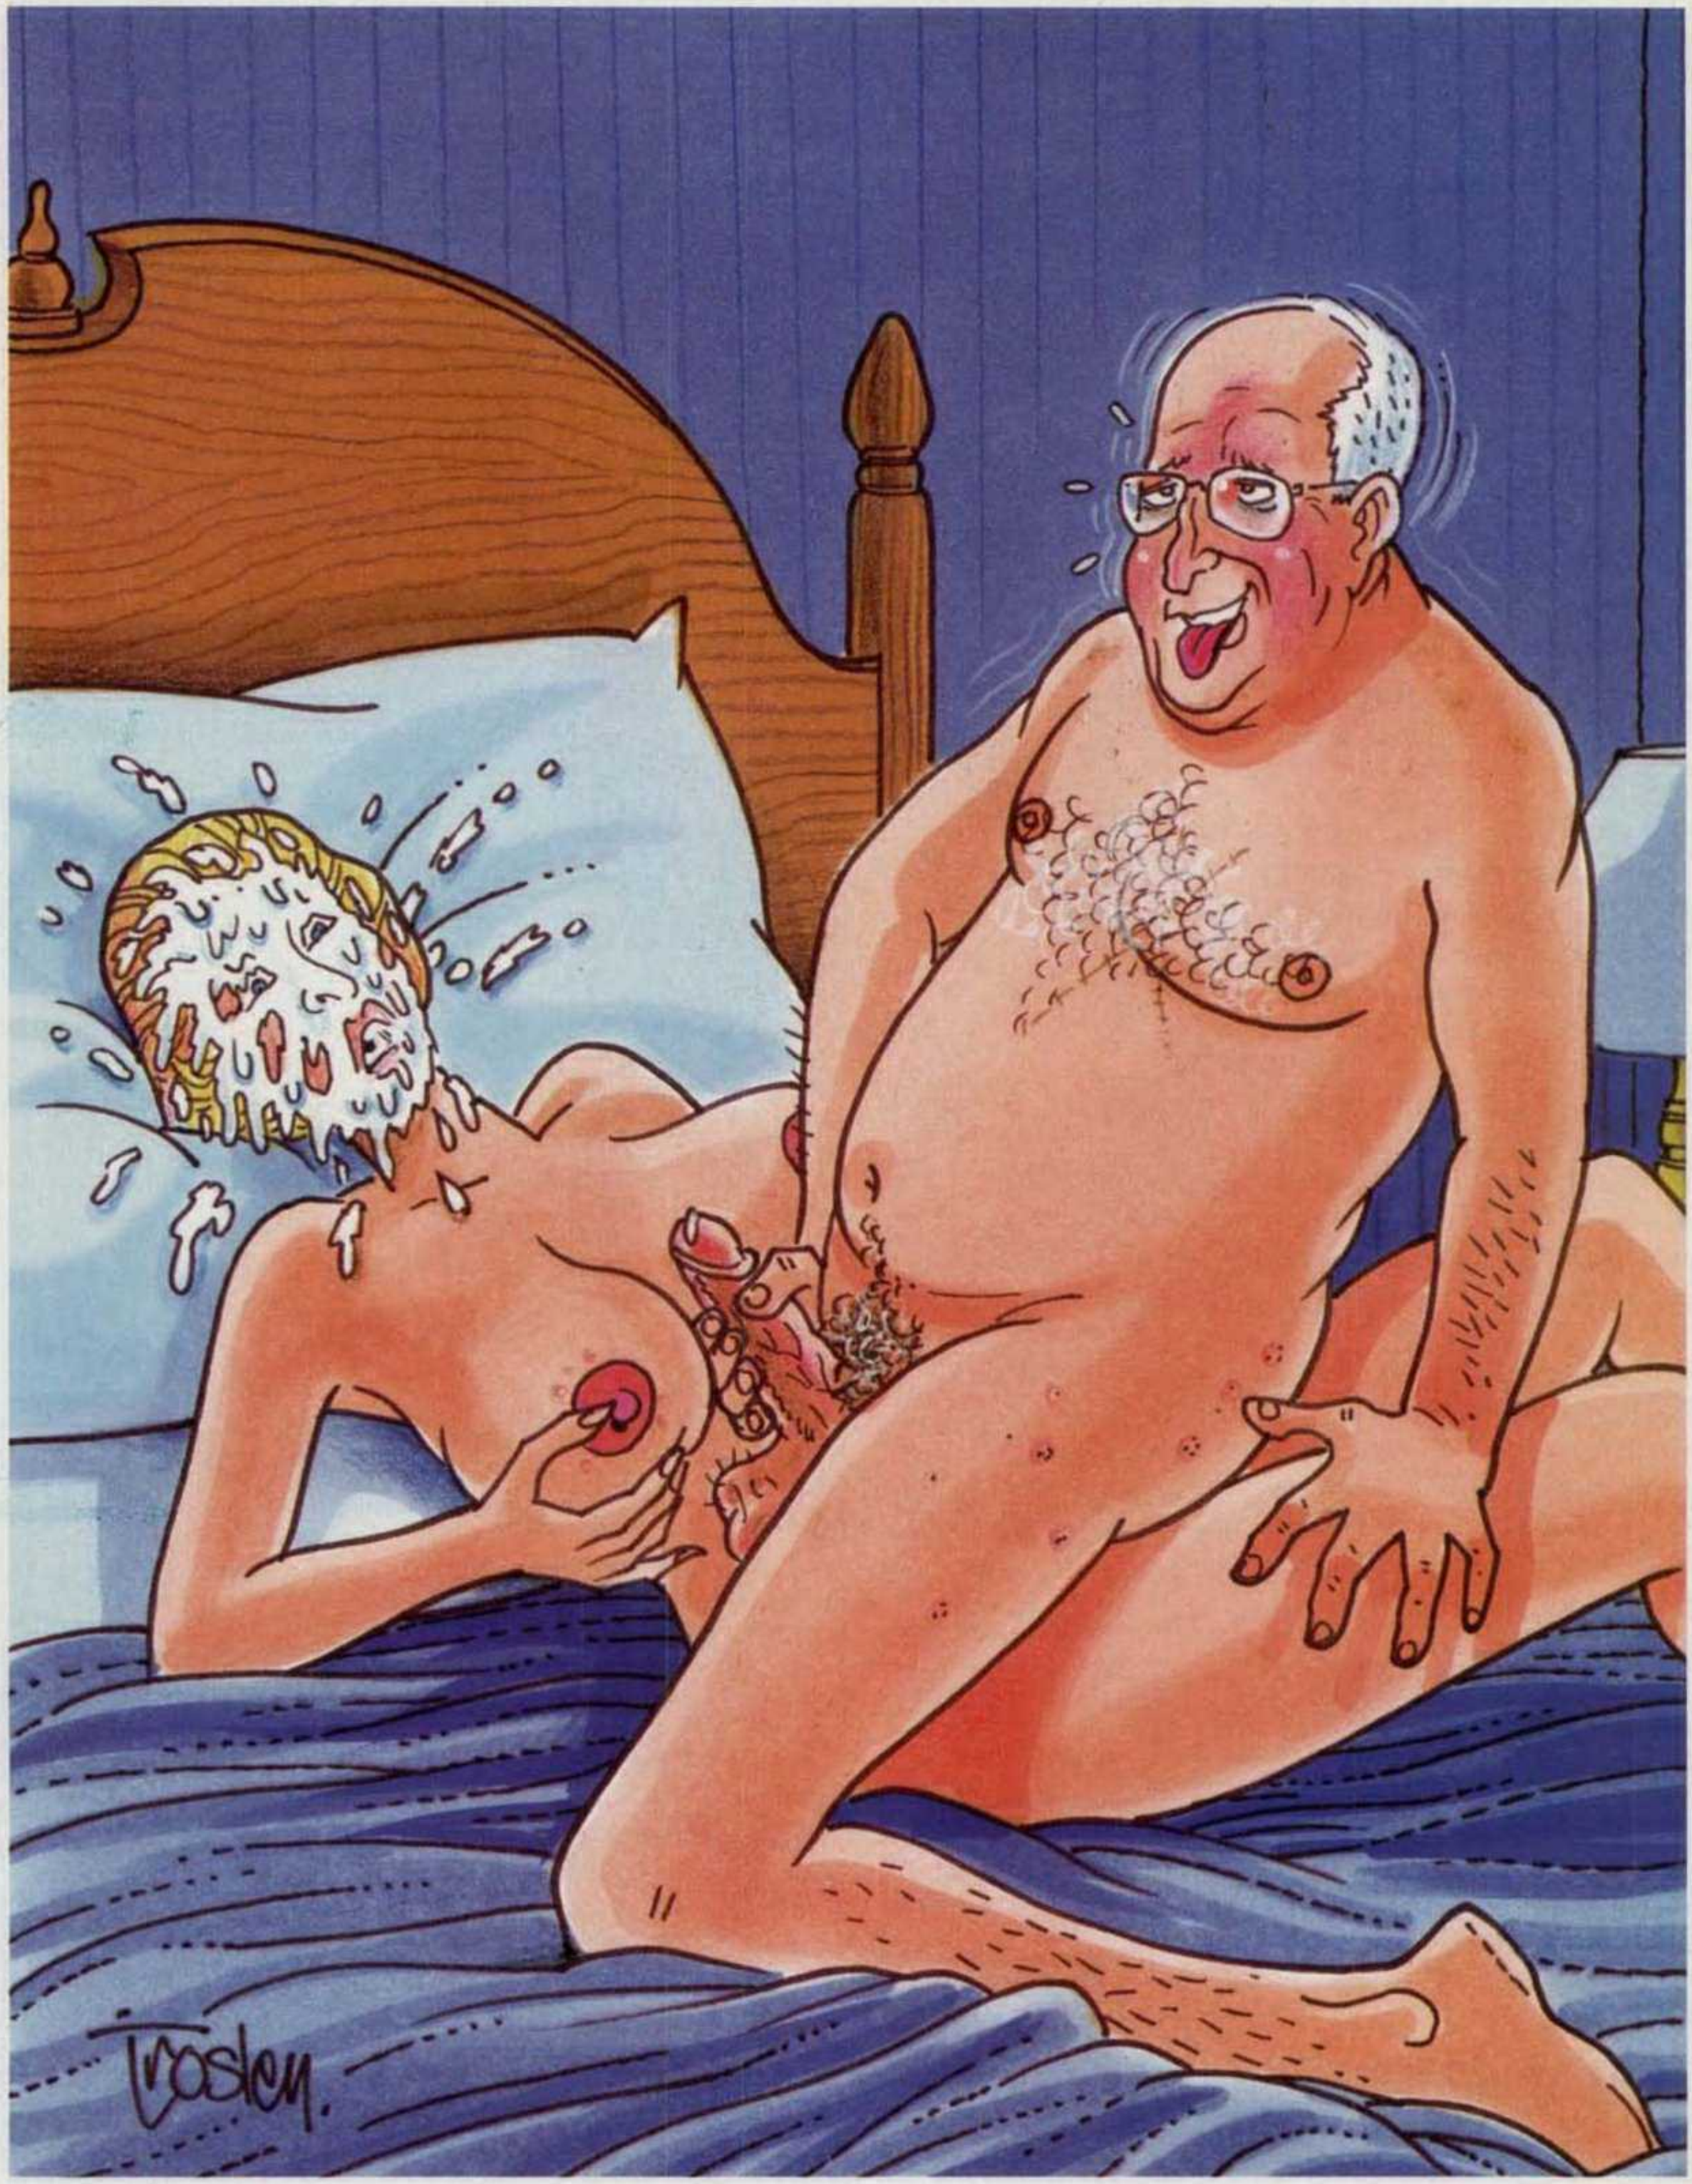
I was rollin' in my Escalade, lookin' for some rims.
Came up on this auto shop and saw these naked bims (bos).
The place was packed with many styles.
I got riled.
But the sight that knocked me out?
Two naked girls gone wild.

Excuse me, bitches, I don't wanna be busting in.
'Cause to stop all of this raunchy sexplay would truly be a sin.
I was hopin' for some service, maybe cop some 22s.
But don't let that stop y'all from playin' with your cooze.

They kept right on goin' at it, lickin' each other's twats. I was hoping they'd wave me in and let me shoot my shot. They kept fingerin' each other, as if I weren't there. When I loaded a new set of rims, they didn't seem to care.

Thanks, you bitches, for the rims—and especially for the show. They went straight to fuckin' hard as I drove away real slow.

Miles down the road I had to question what I saw. Could it have been a mirage in the garage of two white chicks getting raw? Either way, I didn't care. I blew some smoke, and life was good. I got myself some free chrome, and I'm stuck here sporting wood. Guess I'll jerk off now...um, word!



"Between the titties, Dick, between the titties!
Must you shoot everyone in the face?!"

Calls to LIVE chat lines are at EXPLOSIVE LEVELS from HOUSEWIVES looking for fun, and wanting to talk to guys (married or not) about anything and everything. We found three women and one guy who frequent a very popular chat line called 1-800-WIFE-CHAT and asked them why they are turning to a phone line for sex. Not surprisingly, the answer to our questions seemed to lead down one common path each time - Uninhibited, Instantaneous SEX, anytime, anywhere.

It's Friday night, "Susan's" husband is away on a business trip and her pussy is dripping wet with no one to satisfy her. Does she reach for the vibrator again? No, first, she picks up the phone and calls 1-800-WIFE-CHAT looking for a man that will make her come over and over again.

"I get so lonely. and bored. Weekends and evenings are so hard on me, so I fix it fast, by finding a horny guy on the chat line who's...REALLY HARD and ready for me!" exclaims "Susan". She continues, "Calling the chat line for no-holes-barred sex talk is a necessity, it's become part of my evening routine."

I GET SO BORED AND LONELY

"Stephanie" will be the first to tell you she has an insatiable need for sex. "My husband is a great guy but he can't keep up with me." she says. "I call 1-800-WIFE-CHAT about 4 times a week. It's free for me, and luckily, Daniel (husband) sort of looks the other way. It works for both of us, I get a different guy when I want and he gets to sleep through the night."

As "Stephanie" spins her wedding band around her finger she admits, "Just cuz I'm

"Stephanie", (married 5 yrs) in Florida admits, "The chat line feeds my continuous need for sex. My husband just can't keep up with me."

married doesn't mean I can't have sex chat with anonymous guys." she says. "It (being married) adds another level of excitement to calling the chat line."

UNINHIBITED, INSTANTANEOUS SEX, ANYTIME ANYWHERE!

"I'm a realtor so I'm always working. Scheduling sex with my husband just doesn't work for me. I've been calling the live chat lines for eight months." claims "Kim".

Spontaneous live chat sessions are common in "Kim's" hectic life as a Realtor. "When I want it, I want it NOW! I'm always on the phone so I can get away with it very easily."

"I came five times on one call....while in my car!"

"I admit, when I first called I was nervous, but this guy had me rubbing my clit within minutes. Needless to say, it made me so hot, I've been calling ever since. I can't get enough of talking about sex, some might say I'm addicted to it."

"Kim" says she's made many new "friends" since calling 1-800-WIFE-CHAT. "I actually met one guy for an innocent lunch which made our future calls with him even hotter. It seemed liked I was cheating....but I wasn't. Talk about having your cake and eating it too!

100% REAL HOUSEWIVES

"Yeah, I was skeptical about the girls on chat lines." Says "Will" computer programmer by day, chat line stud by night.

"Turns out, 1-800-WIFE-CHAT is the REAL deal, they're 100% real married chicks, no actresses like other chat lines. I was surprised by how many wives liked to talk sex for hours." Will exclaims. "Some of these chicks can't get enough of me. It only cost's me $1.99 a minute and I get to fuck as many married women as I want!"

> "No actresses like other chat lines."

ST TITS in the World

MAXI MOUNDS

THE CURRENT GUINNESS WORLD RECORD holder for the most titanic tits is held by Maxi Mounds, whose bountiful, 60-inch boobs weigh in at a whopping 20 pounds each! But her bustline wasn't always so massive.

Maxi was in her 20s with a supple D-cup chest when she started a career as an adult performer to pay for college. With a nice set of boobs, Maxi made her first "feature" performance as a stripper at a little place called Club Mary in South Florida. After the show she met the girl who would become her future dancing partner, taking the name Mini Mounds. The duo's popularity grew, and the bosomy ladies soon took their act on the road, doing quite well as a marquee attraction.

In the early '90s, hitting nightclubs nationwide, big-bust strippers like Alyssa Alps, Niki Knockers and Chrissy Paris were earning astronomical salaries. TV programs (notably The Jerry Springer Show and The Jenny Jones Show) jumped on the bandwagon, inviting cantilevered guests on a regular basis and creating newfound popularity for super-enhanced women.

Encouraged by fellow performer Joey Karson, who said that her 6-foot frame could take on large implants without much trouble, Maxi underwent surgery in 1993 purely for economic reasons. Instead of conventional silicone or saline pouches, her doctor inserted polypropylene—or "silly string" as it's affectionately known. Essentially, spaghetti-like material is balled up inside the breast, much like the innards of a baseball. The implant is then covered by the recipient's natural body fluid and flesh. Unexpectedly, Maxi's anticipated 50-inch breasts expanded to a whopping 60 inches after the procedure. Luckily, they stopped at their present size. (Her new tits feasibly could have burst.)

As a result of the outlandish surgery, Maxi has become a true, one-of-a-kind modern marvel. (Her pioneering doctor no longer performs polypropylene implantation.) Maxi's recognition was solidified in 2003, when she prodded the Guinness organization to establish a new category for "World's Largest Augmented Breasts." Not surprisingly, she was eventually awarded the prize and has earned her place in history. Maxi's official Guinness certificate reads: "Maxi Mounds (USA) was measured at Sarasota, Florida, USA, on 4 February 2005 and found to have an under breast measurement of 91.44 cm (36 in) and an around chest-over-nipple measurement of 153.67 cm (60.5 in). She currently wears a U.S. size 42M bra (U.K. 42J)."

These days, the jutting hostess of MaxiMounds.com continues to stupefy strip club audiences and passersby wherever she ventures.

The BIGGEST TITS in the World

All-natural wonder girl Chesty Morgan in her prime.

CHESTY MORGAN

BACK IN THE GOLDEN DAYS OF PORN, big tits came from the striptease circuit. The queen of the casabas in the '60s and '70s was a Polish-born exotic dancer named Chesty Morgan, who gained renown shaking her monstrous boobs all across America. Chesty ultimately caught the attention of schlock filmmeister Doris Wishman, who cast her in the 1973 adult classic Deadly Weapons. A year later, Double Agent 73 (the numeral representing Chesty's bust size) arrived in blue-movie theaters, catching the attention of acclaimed Italian director Federico Fellini, who gave her the part of mammary marvel Baberina in his film Casanova. At this point Chesty's story takes an unexpected twist. It is rumored that while filming Casanova in Italy, Chesty joined the Communist Party. Upon her return to the States, she was monitored by U.S. officials, but allegedly stayed in touch with left-wing radicals. It is unclear whether or not Chesty, who was born in 1928, is alive today. She all but vanished from the public eye shortly after Casanova's 1976 release. Yet the bombshell's influence lives on, with footage from her bawdy films popping up in modern-day cult fare like John Waters's 1994 camp masterpiece Serial Mom. With an all-natural 73FF-32-36 figure, Chesty Morgan is hard to forget.

MISTRESS RHIANNON

NO FETISH MODEL can hold a torch to the 62MMM marvel Mistress Rhiannon. One of the hardest-working heavy-chesters around, Rhiannon (who claims to hold three degrees from Montclair University) is a schoolteacher by day, adult superstar by night. After the bell rings at a little school in her native New Jersey, you can find Rhiannon modeling, dancing, making sex films, writing and whipping (as a dominatrix). She's also a singer in three hard rock bands—Cry Baby, Sweet and Evil, and Legend—that perform in and around New York City. She also operates a Web site (RhiannonXXX.com) that caters to every fetish imaginable—from huge breasts to foot lust to bondage. "It takes balls to be a Mistress Rhiannon fan," she tells HUSTLER. Rhiannon likes her men confident and her sex rough, rugged and raw. Should a jaw-dropping scream queen expect anything less?

Top-heavy Mistress Rhiannon lives a dual life.

ROBERT BRYCE INTERVIEW

(continued from page 61) see this whole thing come apart, particularly with the domestic spying and the NSA wiretaps. It's just disastrous, and I'm sorry Texas had to inflict this guy on the rest of the country.

Texas is still going to be a dominant state in America, and that's partly because of demographics, it's partly because of the size of our Congressional delegation and because of our location. But in terms of energy politics, Texas—particularly Houston—is going to be at the center of that. Why? Texas still produces more oil and more natural gas than any other state. We still refine and transport more oil and gas than any other state. This is a place where politics is always going to be in the forefront whether or not Tom DeLay gets thrown in jail—which would be nice—and whether or not Ken Lay and Jeff Skilling of Enron go to jail. These guys are all part of the crony club, and the point is, they are not going to go away. And the Texas energy people who are behind them are not going away.

What can you tell us about Don Evans?

Don Evans is another member of the Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board and former Secretary of Commerce. Evans was the CEO of Tom Brown Energy, or Tom Brown Inc., which was an oil and gas company. He was one of Bush's biggest backers and Bush's campaign manager for President in 2000. Now Evans is on the same Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board [as Hunt], getting the same access to intelligence, and he's a private citizen. Who knows what they're doing? Who else gets that information? Maybe they get something from the NSA, or they get it from the Defense Intelligence Agency. Steve Aftergood at the Federation of American Scientists coined the phrase that best describes this kind of a group. What we're seeing now with the CIA and its issues about budgetary oversight within the DOD is called "arbitrary, unaccountable secrecy." Many of these Texans—Don Evans is from Midland, by the way—are part of the Texas crony club, and they're getting access to the super secrets.

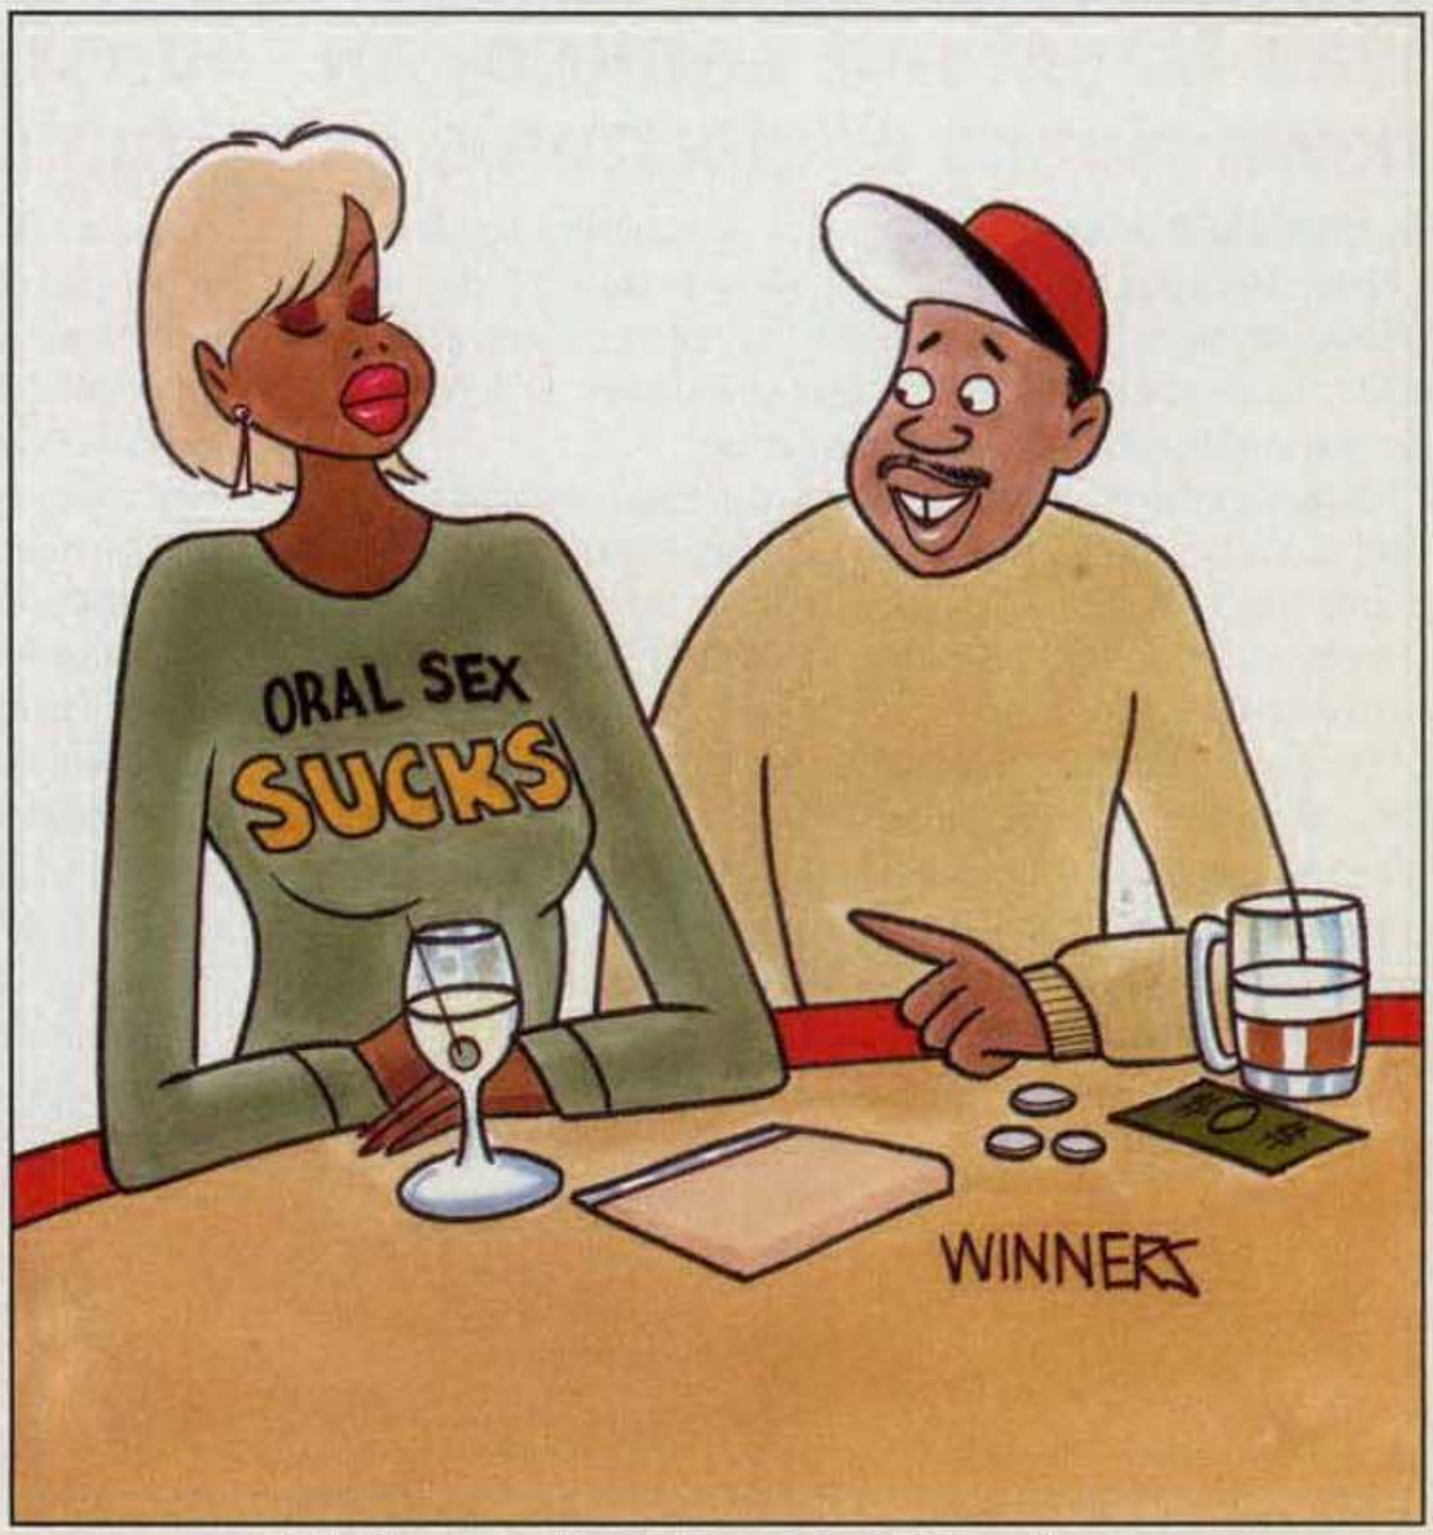
How can we stop the corruption?

FTC rules that require more disclosure of CEO compensation would definitely be a good start. But I think some of the reform is really going to have to happen in Congress, which means we're going to have to rotate memberships within Congress. It may mean term limits. I think campaign finance reform is one absolute essential. Another would be a more involved public. Are the Democrats really going to be tough enough to try impeachment proceedings against Bush? I don't know if they are. I don't know if the Democrats are tough enough. Democrats get money from everybody just like the Republicans, and there is corruption among both.

What's the likelihood of another Texan running for President in 2008?

I don't think it'll happen. Texas's influence is going to be on the downturn for a while. I think Americans have had their fill of Texan Presidents for the moment.

For more information, visit RobertBryce.com.



"That's not altogether true. There's also a fair amount of licking involved!"

Death of Democracy

Was Raymond Lemme, an investigator tracking down claims of electronic vote-rigging, a murder victim?

IN DECEMBER 2004, as hundreds of scandalously under-reported Election Day "irregularities" piled up in the wake of John Kerry's almost-inexplicable "loss," a Florida software programmer named Clint Curtis filed a sworn affidavit that would send shockwaves through the post-election investigations into "what went wrong."

Curtis's explosive allegations, repeated in sworn testimony to members of the U.S. House Judiciary Committee, included the remarkable charge that he had been asked in 2000 by the Speaker of Florida's Legislature, Republican Tom Feeney, to create an electronic vote-rigging software prototype.

Curtis and Feeney first crossed paths when, in a seemingly substantial conflict of interest, Feeney worked as corporate counsel and registered lobbyist for the software firm Yang Enterprises Inc. (YEI) in addition to being the House Speaker. Feeney insists there was absolutely no conflict of interest, even though YEI has had several multimillion-dollar contracts with the state of Florida.

Curtis saw a major problem with Feeney's request that vote-rigging routines be invisible in the computer source code. (Routines are specific instructions for a program; for example, a routine could add an extra Republican vote for every two Democratic votes recorded.) Curtis says he was told by his boss—Mrs. Li-Woan Yang—that the program was needed "to control the vote in South Florida."

Curtis, a registered Republican and a straight-shooter (at least according to those not implicated in his claims), was appalled at being asked to create software that could possibly fix a democratic election. While he felt certain at the time that any attempt to undermine electronic voting systems through computer code would be quickly discovered by election officials, he still reported his concerns about Feeney and Yang to law enforcement officials.

The case would later take a turn toward the bizarre—and terrifying. In June 2003 Curtis was told by investigator Raymond Lemme of the Florida Inspector General's office that the investigation into his allegations was almost complete. According to Curtis, the sleuth told him that he'd "be happy" with the results and that he should keep his ears open because he'd discovered the corruption went "all the way to the top."

Lemme was found dead two weeks later. His bloodied corpse turned up in the bathtub of a cheap motel room in Valdosta, Georgia—about 25 miles from the Florida border.

The police report ruled the cause of death as suicide. In Georgia, unlike Florida, suicides don't call for a mandatory autopsy. Lemme's corpse (i.e. the evidence) was quickly cremated without any thorough medical forensic investigation ever having taken place.

The Valdosta Police Department (VPD) report claimed that photos of the decedent were taken at the scene, but that due to an unexplained failure in the "camera's flash memory cards," the pictures would not be available with the official report. Images that supposedly didn't exist, however, eventually came to light.

In a statement released to HUSTLER by the VPD press office, the crime scene photos have been confirmed as authentic. The statement goes on to read: "We have no evidence at this point to indicate anything other than Mr. Lemme [having] committed suicide. When we received allegations that Mr. Lemme was murdered and that he did not commit suicide, the case was reopened. ... The Valdosta Police Department welcomes any credible information reflecting [that] Mr. Lemme was murdered. At this point, all information still leads to our original conclusion that he committed suicide."

It may well be that the photographs were intentionally "buried" since they reveal, when compared to the police report, a number of still-unexplained discrepancies. For example, what appears to be a massive bruise is clearly seen on Lemme's neck, while the police report states there was no apparent discernible trauma, other than the two razor blade slashes to Lemme's left arm. "Some of the pictures [posted online] have been darkened," the VPD statement discloses, "apparently in an effort to show alleged bruising. … According to the crime scene technician, when the photographs were taken, there was no evidence of bruising noticed on Mr. Lemme's body."

The original police report also mentions a belt on a towel next to the bathtub where Lemme was found, but says there was no blood visible on the towel. The photos obviously show plenty of blood on the towel.

Programmer Clint Curtis left YEI in 2001 and took a job with the Florida Department of Transportation. Months after Lemme's death in 2003, he learned from a news report that America's voting machine companies had managed to convince those in power to allow them to keep the electronic software used to tabulate the upcoming 2004 election a "proprietary trade secret." Consequently, the source code used to create the software on electronic voting machines for Election Day would be wholly uninspected by state election officials. Upon learning this startling truth from a news report, Curtis was stunned. Electronic votes would be tabulated on secret software created and operated by private companies with vested interests in the outcomes. Hidden or not, nobody would be allowed to see any of the routines used in that software's source code.

Curtis was concerned, and he made his voice heard. Aside from the allegations of vote-rigging, Curtis's affidavit reported on alleged illegal Chinese aliens who worked at YEI, a top-level security-clearance company. Curtis claims these employees were inserting "wire-tapping modules" into software written for their clients. The data mined from the taps would then be sent via the Internet back to YEI. This is chilling, considering that some of the software development contracts held by YEI include those with the Florida Department of Transportation and (far more troublingly) NASA.

Shortly after blowing the whistle, Curtis lost his job at the Department of Transportation. Despite continued denial from Feeney's camp and YEI, many of Curtis's charges have been confirmed as true. He has even passed a polygraph test! At least one person who Curtis blew the whistle on has been busted. YEI employee and illegal Chinese alien Hai-Lin "Henry" Nee was indicted and pled guilty in 2004 to espionage charges related to shipping anti-tank missile chips to China.

The Lemme case, however, is still shrouded in secrecy. Was the investigator murdered in the course of analyzing Curtis's claims? Did Lemme's "all the way to the top" investigation lead to a hit meant to cover up Curtis's vote-rigging allegations? Was he offed by members of the Chinese Mafia protecting their technology spies at YEI? We may never know. The VPD re-closed the case after speaking to an unidentified person "at the Florida Department of Transportation."

The alleged suicide tool.

The spatter doesn't lie: Valdosta police deny there was blood on the towel found near Lemme.

In the wake of the scandal, whistle-blower Curtis has abandoned his Republican roots to run as a Democrat for U.S. Congress in Florida's 24th District. (See "Vote for Clint" below.) His GOP opponent? None other than Congressman Tom Feeney, who now fills the seat and is up for reelection.

Curtis has his work cut out for him—Feeney will undoubtedly use every trick in the book, and he knows a lot of tricks. A recent fund-raising letter from Feeney has preemptively accused Curtis of "complete lies." Despite Curtis's challenge, Feeney refuses to take a lie detector test.

Feeney, Jeb Bush's 1994 gubernatorial running mate, also served the Bushes in the 2000 Presidential election fiasco, when—as Florida House Speaker—he announced his intention to certify the state's Republican electors before it was clear who'd actually carried the state. Feeney is now under fire for his relationship to indicted former House Majority Leader Tom DeLay and his patron Jack Abramoff. Feeney took one of the infamous golf trips to Scotland paid for by lobbyist Abramoff—a clear violation of House rules.

Although Curtis is a budding politician, he was once a Republican himself. He understands the uphill battle he now faces running against a GOP heavyweight in a conservative district carved out by Feeney himself. Still, Curtis seems undaunted by the task. "I was a Republican for 40 years," Curtis says, "but the values of that party have ceased to exist."

VOTE FOR CLINT!

CLINT CURTIS, 48, has ditched the Republican Party after exposing a high-level, GOP election-fraud scheme in Florida. The one-time computer programmer is now a self-described "conservative Democrat," ironically running against Republican Congressman Tom Feeney in Florida's 24th District. Feeney is the same corrupt vote-rigger Curtis blew the whistle on last year.

Curtis plans to show Feeney and his ilk that voters are the ones who matter, not the vote counters. The Curtis campaign promises to uphold the democracy we once took for granted. "My vote will not be for sale," Curtis pledges. "I will not take trips on lobbyist money." Feeney, on the other hand, is closely tied to indicted superlobbyist Jack Abramoff. New to the political game, Curtis is the obvious underdog running against a well-connected, two-term incumbent.

Curtis has now become the victim of a smear campaign. He was fired from his job at the Florida Department of Transportation and labeled a disgruntled ex-employee by software company YEI Inc. after he took his vote-rigging information public. Despite Curtis passing a polygraph test regarding his claims, Feeney has called Curtis's allegations "ridiculous" and says they never met.

Curtis says he needs to raise at least $300,000 and assemble 300 volunteers to mount a successful challenge against Feeney—modest targets for a campaign that size. In an act of good faith, Curtis promises that if he fails to meet his goals and is forced to withdraw his bid for office, he will return all available contributions.

In other words, even if you aren't a 24th District Floridian voter, you can always write a check. For more info, go to ClintCurtis.com.

While grabbing some beers after work, Mike warned his buddy Tom about a scam he'd fallen for. "Two 18-year-old babes came up to my car as I was leaving the bar. One started cleaning my windshield, while the other chick leaned into my window, with her tits almost coming out of her blouse, and whispered, "Hi."

"No shit?" Tom exclaimed.

"They begged me for a ride to the college," Mike continued. "As soon as the girls climbed in, they started having sex in the backseat. Then one gave me a blowjob, while the other stole my wallet."

"That sucks," Tom said in consolation.

"You're telling me," Mike replied. "They got me last Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, but I couldn't find them Saturday or Sunday!"

Question: What's the difference between a Jew and a canoe?

Answer: A canoe tips.

A church hired a busty new organist. The blonde's tits were so huge that they jiggled while she played, distracting the entire congregation. The prim-and-proper church ladies were appalled and decided that something had to be done.

Discreetly approaching the organist, one of the prudes told her to rub some lemons on her breasts. Then maybe they would shrink. The blonde agreed to try it.

The following Sunday the minister got up in the pulpit and solemnly announced, "Dew to thircumthanthis bewond my contwol, we will not hath a thermon tewday."

A small plane crashed in the middle of the desert. The pilot and copilot wandered around for days in search of food, but could find nothing. Finally, the copilot blurted out, "I'm so hungry, I'm gonna chop off my dick and eat it."

"Wait!" the pilot yelled. "Before you do that, think of your girlfriend."

"What's the point?" the desperate copilot asked. "At this rate, I'll never see her again anyway."

"I know," the pilot said, "but if you think about her first, there might be enough for both of us!"

After returning from combat duty, a Marine discovered that his sexy wife was knocked up. Figuring something just wasn't right, he went to see a military doctor. "She can't be pregnant, Doc," the jarhead said. "I've been fighting in Iraq for the last year!"

The doctor explained that the veteran had to deal with a "grudge pregnancy."

"What do you mean?!" the Marine roared.

"Someone had it in for you," the doctor replied.

Question: What is the proper etiquette if your blond date refuses to give it up with the lights on?

Answer: Be a gentleman and close the car door.

A college dropout went to a big aerospace company and applied for an engineering job. "For someone with no training or experience," the personnel director muttered, looking over the young man's application, "you're certainly asking for a high wage."

"Well, sir," reasoned the job seeker, "the work is much harder when you don't know what you're doing."

AN INTERVIEW WITH FEAR FACTORY DRIVING FORCE RAYMOND HERRERA

BY TOM FARRELL

LOS ANGELES HEAVY METAL ACT Fear Factory has been in the hard rock trenches for years, pounding out a unique style of music that separates them from the rest of the pack. Aside from being an enduring staple of the metal scene, Fear Factory is also renowned as a premier supplier of music for an array of video games. We recently caught up with drummer Raymond Herrera as the band was preparing for a lengthy European tour.

HUSTLER: Tell us about your new release.

RAYMOND HERRERA: Our last album is titled Transgression and was released on Calvin Records. Transgression still has the Fear Factory sound that fans have become accustomed to, but also has some new styles and ideas that do make it stand apart from our discography, most notably on "Echo of My Scream" and "New Promise."

How did you get started doing music for video games?

I started getting our music on video games back in 1995, when I went to the very first E3 convention [Electronic Entertainment Expo]. I had a backpack full of Fear Factory CDs and handed them out to everybody I could think of or see there. Calls started coming in on our tunes, and it turned out that a lot of people in the video game industry were already Fear Factory fans. So I started getting tracks licensed, and it basically snowballed from there.

Name some video games that feature Fear Factory tunes.

Ghost Recon Advanced Warfighter, Rainbow Six: Lockdown, Enter the Matrix, Sled Storm, Dead to Rights II, Test Drive 4 and 5, Terminator Dawn of Fate, Frequency, Greg Hastings's Tournament Paintball Max'd, WWE

Smackdown vs. Raw 2006, and the list just goes on and on.

We notice you have the Fear Factory tour van as an unlockable bonus car in Test Drive 4—or was that 5?

Yeah, I believe that was for Test Drive 4.

Any other games with Fear Factory appearances we should know about?

We also wrote some original music for Demolition Racer, and we implemented some of our "Replica" video as the intro for the video game along with some car crash footage.

Has the video game thing been more lucrative than the normal record industry route?

Well it wasn't at first, but it quickly became very lucrative. I eventually started my own production company doing licensing, original music, voice and sound effects. That later became 3volution Productions, and we are very busy with this production company. There is no shortage of business for us, since we offer so much more than just audio.

What's in the future for Fear Factory?

We plan to be touring for most of 2006 and start writing another album for 2007.

As a gamer, what are your favorite games? All time? Current games?

My favorite games of all time would probably have to be the Halo series, the Tekken series, the Soul Calibur series, the Project Gotham series, God of War, the Gran Turismo series, the Metal Gear Solid series, the Legend of Zelda series, Phoenix and BurgerTime.

My current favorites are Geometry Wars, Halo 2, Project Gotham 3, Ridge Racer, Rainbow Six Lockdown, Soul Calibur 3 and Dead or Alive for Xbox 360. ■

A LITTLE BIT COUNTRY

JOHN RICH

Country music fans have a lot to celebrate about with a slew of output from established stars and newcomers alike. Sony Legacy has recently released Big Al Anderson's After Hours, the crooner's first album in ten years. The former NRBQ guitarist moved to Nashville in 1993 and became one of that city's most prolific songwriters, aligning himself with Jimmy Buffett, Martina McBride, Vince Gill, LeAnn Rimes, Patty Loveless, Diamond Rio, Trisha Yearwood, Tim McGraw and many more.

BNA/Legacy has released Underneath the Same Moon, the previously unreleased solo album from John Rich. The disc was recorded in 1999, two years after he left Lonestar and five years prior to the debut Big & Rich album in 2004. Produced by Rich and songwriter Sharon Vaughn (who wrote "My Heroes Have Always Been Cowboys" for Willie Nelson), this 12-track set features five songs written by Rich and performing partner "Big" Kenny Alphin, including the original version of the Big & Rich-penned song "I Pray for You," from the duo's 2005 album Comin' to Your City. The album also features collaborations with country superstar Sara Evans and Texas roots legend Delbert McClinton.

RCA/Legacy has released Alabama—Livin' Lovin' Rockin' Rollin: The 25th Anniversary Collection. Enshrined in the Country Music Hall of Fame, Alabama has long been one of country's premier acts. This three-CD box set presents 51 tracks (eight previously unreleased), concert performances, alternative versions of their songs and a 1973 acoustic demo from Randy Owens. The box set really captures the magnificence and success of Alabama's lengthy career, including their 26—count 'em, 26—number-one hits and a stunning 52-page full-color booklet with a 3,300-word biographical liner note essay by Nashville music scribe Robert Oermann and a behind-the-scenes track-by-track annotation, timeline and rare photos.

GEORGE JONES

Also from RCA Legacy, look for some new titles in its "essential" series from country legends George Jones, Charley Pride and Jim Reeves.

Finally, Kris Kristofferson is being lauded on The Pilgrim: A Celebration of Kris Kristofferson, an 18-track affair featuring covers by some of music's most-respected and diverse names. Willie Nelson (a fellow member of the Highwaymen), Emmylou Harris, Rosanne Cash, Gretchen Wilson, soul singer Brian McKnight and actor Russell Crowe belt out their favorite K.K. tunes. The final track, listed as "Coda," has Kristofferson himself delivering his 1970 song "Please Don't Tell Me How the Story Ends." Sorry to ruin it for you, Kris, but the story ends with you being an all-time country music great, and this album testifies to that fact. —T.F.

Coming Home Studios has done a brilliant job of capturing pop legend Duran Duran's recent reunion tour. The band, which recently celebrated its 25th anniversary, was lensed live at England's prestigious Wembley Arena over a handful of nights with its original lineup. The result is Duran Duran Live From London, a two-disc set featuring ten audio tracks and 20 tunes caught live on DVD. The group dips back into its catalog for tunes like "Night Boat," "Planet Earth, "The Chauffeur" and "Is There Something I Should Know?," as well as newer material like "What Happens Tomorrow." And check out the cool anime flick that plays to the strains of "Careless Memories."

The concert footage features Dolby Digital 5.1 Surround Sound and excellent cinematography that is artistically delivered and top-notch in quality. Plus, the extra features include a track in 3-D (glasses included) and a comprehensive, well-presented documentary. HUSTLER ON CAMPUS

PEDAL-TO-THE-METAL TERROR

At the University of North Carolina an SUV suddenly veered into a crowded quad, but this was no random accident. Fueled by anti-American sentiments, an enraged alumnus carried out a premeditated attack!

It was a typical Friday on the University of North Carolina's Chapel Hill campus—lively and boisterous—as students, faculty and staff looked forward to a relaxing weekend. But Mohammed Reza Taheri-azar, who'd been convicted almost three years earlier for reckless driving and resisting arrest, had different plans. Just before noon the 2005 UNC graduate plowed a rented Jeep Grand Cherokee through a bustling area commonly known as the Pit.

"I see everyone kind of part because there's a car coming through," recalled junior Jeff Hoffman, one of the nine pedestrians struck by the careening SUV on March 3. "The next thing I know, I'm on his windshield. When you're in a congested area, and you see a vehicle coming through, it's shocking." Hoffman escaped major injury, but his arm required a bandage.

"I heard bump, bump, bump," said Zach Ludington, a junior. "He was nailing people."

Junior Michael Highland also witnessed the horrifying spectacle. "He hit one person. I remember he just hit him, and the guy just flew. A few others got hit partially."

According to Captain Brian Curran of the Chapel Hill Police Department, Taheri-azar called 911 and was apprehended shortly after the incident.

"He kinda gave himself up," remarked Herbert Bryant of the university's Department of Public Safety.

Six victims were transported to UNC hospitals, including a 20-year-old woman suffering from an apparent head injury and a 42-year-old man with abrasions. Three others declined treatment.

UNC Police Chief Derek Poarch announced that Taheri-azar, 22, was being held at Raleigh's Central Prison on a $5.5-million bond. The charges: nine counts of attempted first-degree murder and nine counts of assault with a deadly weapon, inflicting serious injury with intent to kill. If convicted on all felony counts, Taheri-azar could be sentenced to up to 150 years in prison.

Poarch said that based on the accused's comments, anti-American sentiments had motivated the rampage. The police chief added that Taheri-azar, who was born in Iran, had acted to "avenge the deaths or murders of Muslims around the world."

One of the nine pedestrians intentionally run down by a vengeful motorist is stabilized for transport to a hospital. Driver Mohammed Taheri-azar (shown below in jail garb) later surrendered to authorities and was charged with multiple counts of attempted murder.

Neither alcohol nor drugs were involved, authorities stated. Nothing has been found to indicate a conspiracy, but Taheri-azar confessed to investigators and told them that he'd been planning the attack for two months.

From his jail cell, Taheri-azar sent handwritten letters to several media outlets, detailing the reasons behind his violent act. In a letter to the Durham Herald-Sun, he explained that the Koran gives him and other followers permission to attack those who have waged war against them.

"I therefore decided to attack within the U.S. borders," Taheri-azar declared, "hoping that the U.S. government would understand that my fellow followers of Allah will do everything necessary to defeat our enemies, even giving up a college degree from UNC-Chapel Hill, as I did myself."

Police Chief Poarch countered, "I'm seeing it as an act in violation of State of North Carolina laws."

Responding to Taheri-azar's deed, the Muslim Students Association (MSA) issued a press release: "Regardless of what his intentions prove to be, we wholeheartedly deplore this action. Our relationship with him was limited to the few appearances he made in a prayer room."

MSA executive board member Arif Khan said Taheri-azar was not a member of the group.

Professor Gordon Pitz was stunned that a young man who'd taken two of his classes had tried to kill people. Taheri-azar, a psychology and philosophy major, had impressed the scholar as a studious learner who was never afraid to seek out information and talk about his ideas. "He was active and involved with the material," Pitz recalled.

EPILOGUE: No one has succumbed to injuries incurred during the incident, which prompted a response from the FBI as a possible terrorist act, but the academic community and Chapel Hill are still reeling. Mohammed Reza Taheri-azar remains behind bars.

This account was written by student reporters of the University of North Carolina's Daily Tar Heel and edited by Ryan Tuck.

IVORY

"I used to be more shy," reckons this 20-year-old receptionist from Toledo, Ohio, who's now receptive to being a Beaver. "Taking risqué pictures is like being on the edge. People can see me, but not be too close." But being close to Ivory, a jogging and softball buff, is idyllic. "My boyfriend and I spice things up by having sex in different places," the 5-foot-7 novice reveals. "This summer we're hitting the roof!" Also on Ivory's to-do list is a wild threesome: "I'd like to be thrown around a bit during intercourse with my boyfriend while another woman sucks hard (but not too hard) on my nipples. Then I'd use a glass dildo on her while my boyfriend licks both our clits." —Photos by Boyfriend

MIRANDA

Once just a hot, little housewife from Knoxville, Tennessee, this May '05 Beaver returns with a penetration pic and news that more is yet to come. "I'm still keeping my husband happy," says Miranda, 22, "but I'm a stripper now, and I intend to do XXX movies." Perhaps the 5-foot-nothing belle can re-create this brazen tryst: "I love being naked, outside the most, and one time I had sex on the back balcony of our house in the middle of the day. I'm sure the neighbors got a show!" As for a wish, it's "fucking a cowboy in a wide-open field." —Photo by Husband

"I like it rough," the pixie chirps, "and I'll try anything once. I sure love sucking cock—and, yes, I swallow!" K.J. is straight, but "willing to try the right girl." Fond of working on cars (if not fooling around inside hers), the sleek cutie fantasizes about "having a train pulled on me while my 18-year-old boyfriend watches." —Photos by Ex

Georgia, 33, is a hearty handful (5-foot-7 and 36D on top), and guys and gals alike are welcome to dig in. "I'm insatiable," she admits. "I can't get enough." And talk about an early riser! "One of my special treats is the 6 a.m. blowjob," pipes Georgia, whose sexual kink is cotton candy. "It's pink, sweet and melts in your mouth, just like my pussy." Her fantasy? KEHAU

Saying "Aloha!" by letting it all hang out is a 20-year-old Beaver from the little town of Paia. That's on the Hawaiian island of Maui, but Kehau herself is little only in stature. Just 4-foot-11, the tart packs a pair of all-natural 40DD bazooms. "They're my power weapon!" exclaims the buxom housekeeper, who seems unable to keep her clothes on for very long. "I love being naked," Kehau points out. She also isn't bashful when asked to delve into her sexual side. "I'm straight, but I'm willing to try anything." That's for sure! "My favorite lay is being fucked in the ass," Kehau proudly confesses, adding an apt fantasy: "I'd like to be in a Greek orgy where everyone wears masks and goes at it." —Photos by Friend

"My darkest fantasy is to have anal sex in the rain!"

Standing 5-foot-8 and eager to be seen in all her glory, just like Mom, Charissa shares another trait. "I'm a pervert too," the September birthday girl discloses. (She'll be 21.) "How many girls will pose naked with their mother?" Oops! It looks like the yummy homemaker from Aurora, Illinois, has tipped our hand. (Don't sweat it. Their bosom buddy shots are on the way!) Meanwhile, Charissa lets out that she's a dancing, movie and bondage fan. "Yes, I'm a little strange," she chirps. But the second-generation Beaver is first-rate. —Photos by Friend

"I always wanted to be in HUSTLER, but never had the nerve," coos this 25-year-old health-care coordinator from Lakeland, Florida. "My photographer built up my confidence." "Being gone down on!" Tammi replies. No wonder she craves "a little girl-on-girl with a guy in between." —Photo by Friend

Here's a Denver hair salon manager and hockey fan who's taken her penchant for being bare public. "I was curious to see if I'd get accepted," says Alli, 24, a diminutive gal with a huge carnal appetite. "I love to have sex three times a day," she admits. "I like it when my husband uses toys on me. It keeps the game interesting. I also like to sit down and watch hubby fuck another woman. In the meantime I'm playing with my pussy." The 5-foot-3 fox's fantasy is "strip dancing while a man drinks beer off my tits!" —Photo by Husband

First igniting our pages with a single snapshot, this firefighter from Pueblo, Colorado, deservedly returns in her first professional-style layout. "When I saw myself in Beaver Hunt," Celeste says, "it turned me on to know that so many people would be fantasizing about me. I love it." But the 24-year-old has surpassed her own expectations. "I was so ecstatic about being chosen as a finalist," she explains. "I couldn't believe it. At first I thought one of my friends was playing a joke. Doing a photo-shoot for HUSTLER was an awesome experience, and I hope it's not my last!"

CELESTE
HEAVENLY ASPIRANT

2006 BEAVER HUNT
FINALIST #1

PHOTOGRAPHY BY MATTI KLATT

Vying for our $5,000 grand prize isn't the first time that Celeste has been up for a challenge. "I decided to become a firefighter," the 5-foot-2 cutie reveals, "because I was always taught that girls can do anything boys can, and many people thought that with me being so small and girly, I just couldn't hack it. I just had to prove everyone wrong!"

Apparently, Celeste has chosen the perfect line of work. "You have no idea what to expect when you're first dispatched to a call," she continues. "Your adrenaline is pumping—kinda like the first time you have sex with someone new! The excitement of fighting a fire is like no other rush out there. The flames, water and wind are almost enchanting. There's nothing else like it."

At least until Celeste finally calls it a day. "In the bedroom I'm open to everything!" she exclaims. "I love trying new things. I like to be dominated and also do the dominating, depending on the mood I'm in. But either way, I definitely like it rough! When it comes to sex, I have no limitations really—guys, girls, threesomes, S&M. Fucking when people are watching is quite a rush, especially in a public place. Say a football game, where I'm unsure if anyone has noticed that my skirt is up, and I'm sitting on a man's cock, bouncing up and down—but not because the home team just scored a touchdown!"

"I will go wherever this takes me," the celestial siren assures us. "I really love being the center of attention, and I may opt to do more modeling or even XXX films. I sometimes dance at a strip club, and having people in the audience want you is so exciting."

So what will tomorrow bring, Celeste? "Life is a journey! My long-range goal is to be a flight nurse, but I'll continue with the fire department. Whatever comes out of this is just icing on the cake! If somehow I do win the grand prize, I'll take a well-deserved vacation to somewhere hot and exotic, where I don't have to wear any clothes on the beach and just relax!"

BLUE-MOVIE ★★★★ SHOWCASE

EDITED BY TOM FARRELL

Isabella Sky and fair-haired Codi Milo get cozy in Barely Legal Innocence #4.

Jessi Summers savors Kurt Lockwood's load in BL Innocence #4.

Barely Legal Innocence #4

DIRECTOR: WILL RIDER. STARRING: JESSI SUMMERS, DESTINY SUMMERS, ISABELLA SKY, CODI MILO, MONTANA RAE, SANYA, KRIS SLATER, KURT LOCKWOOD, BARRETT BLADE AND SCOTT NAILS. DVD & VHS: HUSTLER VIDEO.

With Barely Legal Innocence #4, Will Rider proves he is a talented (and very hands-on) director who not only knows how to pick a hot cast, but also how to utilize their talents. Rookie Jessi Summers earns top billing on the strength of her performance. Of course, having a killer bod accentuated by new boobs doesn't hurt. Kurt Lockwood fucks the shit out of Jessi, but the little cockfiend is hungry for more. Destiny Summers has big, natural tits and a shocking choice of favorite positions. Blond babe Codi Milo has awesome hooters for a cocksmith. The sexy schoolgirl fucks classmate Isabella Sky so hard with a strap-on that Isabella has to take extreme measures to return the favor. Petite country girl Montana Rae shows a high aptitude for porn despite having just come of age. When the director goes gaga for Montana's hairy bush, she naively asks, "Is that abnormal?" The stars of Barely Legal Innocence #4 are impossibly cute and ready to fuck. —Kevin Wright

Industry

DIRECTOR: CHI CHI LA RUE. STARRING: MERCEDEZ, JENNA HAZE, T.J. HART, BARBARA SUMMER, NICOLE SHERIDAN, JAMIE HUXLEY, JOHNNY CASTLE, JEAN VAL JEAN AND MANUEL FERRARA. DVD: VIVID VIDEO.

Industry is set in a postapocalyptic Mad Max world where everybody wears threads that look like castoffs from Mötley Crüe's formative days married to the production values of early John Woo, à la A Better Tomorrow. That's not necessarily a bad thing, because when it comes down to it, Vivid knows that it's all about gorgeous chicks who can't get enough sex. And Industry rolls out such hotties as Vivid Girl Mercedez (a true Latina sex bomb!), the voluptuous T.J. Hart and foxy brunette Jenna Haze. The box cover points out that the action takes place in a subterranean L.A. locale: "Industry. A world without form. Devoid of thought. A primordial, sexual paradise." Except this flick seems to have involved a great deal of thought and design, but there's no arguing that paradise is where you find an onslaught of sex scenes showcasing dolls who love to suck and fuck. Your hand will spend a lot more time on your cock than on the fast-forward button—especially when Mercedez and Barbara Summer team up with Manuel Ferrara and Jean Val Jean. —Barry Gordon

HUSTLER'S Beaver Hunt #2

DIRECTOR: WILL RIDER. STARRING: ALEXIA, RENEE RICHARDS, FRANCHEZCA VALENTINA, GIANA DREAMS, RILEY MASON, BARRETT BLADE, KURT LOCKWOOD, JAMES DEEN, MR. PETE AND TOMMY GUNN. DVD & VHS: HUSTLER VIDEO.

Believe it or not, a XXX vid featuring only HUSTLER newcomers has a drawback for fans of amateur porn. Soon after shooting their respective scenes for HUSTLER'S Beaver Hunt #2, the electrifying stars have all gone pro. Who can blame them? These girls are too delectable and too horny not to. Alexia is a busty, blond cocksucker who also loves being fucked hard. Renee Richards balances her cool British charm with a no-holds-barred libido, while curvy Franchezca Valentina has the face of an angel, but a body built for raw sex. Neu Wave Hookers star Riley Mason looks cute as a button and fucks like a rabbit that just got out of prison in what has to be her hottest scene to date. Nervous 19-year-old Giana Dreams is the only chick yet to rack up a hard-core résumé, but the petite cutie has the looks and talent to go as far as she wants. Beaver Hunt #2 is a breeding ground for tomorrow's stars and a must-see for Renee Richards and Riley Mason fans. —K.W.

Pamela Sandersin ponders the silly spelling of her last name.

The Pamela Principle

DIRECTOR: DILLON. STARRING: PAMELA SANDERSIN, STACY SILVER, JANE DARLING, CORY EVERSON, SHARKA BLUE, LILIANE TIGER, DILLON, MICK BLUE, GEORGE UHL, JOE MONTI AND ROLAND DANTE. DVD: ANGEL PICTURES/SIN CITY.

Have you worn out your Pamela Anderson sex tapes? Never fear, because celebrity lookalike Pamela Sandersin makes her XXX debut in The Pamela Principle. The newbie looks as much like the real thing as she sounds, despite a distinctly foreign air. Luckily for fans of both ladies, Ms. Sandersin has a Eurobabe's appetite for sizzling anal sex. After lezzing out with Liliane Tiger in her first scene, the busty blonde lets a lucky guy pound her in the ass for the grand finale. Just as Yasmine Bleeth and Donna D'Errico watched Ms. Anderson's back on Baywatch, this movie boasts an all-star supporting cast—notably Stacy Silver, Sharka Blue and the wildly popular Jane Darling. Sharka's D.P. and Jane's three-way are white-knuckled roller-coaster rides that will test any man's stamina—and reward multiple viewings. Pamela Sandersin may be aping the looks of Canada's biggest (non-Shatner) sex symbol, but The Pamela Principle's ace in the hole is its European-style hard-core. —K.W.

KNOWS HOW TO PARTY

VIRGINIA-BASED SEX-Z PICTURES threw one helluva bash at Hollywood's Knitting Factory to celebrate the release of The Decline of Western Civilization Part 69: The Porn Years. On hand were hundreds of XXX darlings, adult industry hotshots, mainstream entertainment movers and shakers and celebs like Poison's C.C. DeVille, ex-Backstreet Boy Nick Carter and heavy metaller Lizzy Borden. "This was a great night," said Sex Z-Pictures' Bo Kenney, "and I'm so happy that everybody had a fantastic time as we celebrate the Decline movie." The company's maverick owner not only brought a bevy of fuck bunnies, but also picked up the massive bar tab for the evening. Way to go, Bo!

GINA LYNN'S VIRTUAL B.J.

Blackjack diva Gina Lynn gets sandwiched by Robin Quivers and Howard Stern.

ONE OF XXX CINEMA'S BIGGEST STARS is more accessible than ever. Exquisite Multimedia has now released the hard-core edition of Virtual Blackjack With Gina Lynn, an interactive DVD game that can be played on conventional DVD players and computers. As the seductive dealer, Gina becomes flirtatious or disapproving, depending on how the cards play out. Each time her opponent has a winning hand, Gina loses an article of clothing, and when she's totally nude, voilà. She puts on a private dance and makes herself available for interactive sex, offering numerous options—including tickling and spanking, not to mention the erotic b.j. and where to shoot that load. Vegas was never this good!

Gina Lynn has been quite active promoting the new game. Donning only a thong, high heels and tiger stripe makeup, she even popped in on a surprise birthday party for Howard Stern.

A truly versatile talent, Gina Lynn has made waves in both the adult and mainstream markets. The blond bombshell appeared in the Billy Crystal movie Analyze This and has been a Bada Bing girl on The Sopranos and a stripper on NBC's Third Watch. Obviously a big fan, Eminem personally chose Gina as the main babe in the video for his chart-topper "Super Man."

Virtual Blackjack With Gina Lynn is available at GinaLynn.com, DVDblackjack.com and adult-video stores nationwide.

Mythology: Monique Alexander visits the oracle of Eve Laurence.

Hummer of the gods: Roxy Jezel handles Jack Venice's obelisk while Monique Alexander grabs a little peek in Mythology*.*

Mythology

DIRECTOR: ELI CROSS. STARRING: MONIQUE ALEXANDER, TRINA MICHAELS, JULIE NIGHT, ROXY JEZEL, CINDY CRAWFORD, EVE LAURENCE, JERRY MARCOS, LEON, JACK VENICE AND MANUEL FERRARA. DVD: VIVID VIDEO.

Mythology shows Vivid getting more excellent mileage out of its new contract girl, the beautiful Monique Alexander. Possessing a girl-next-door quality in the same vein as Christine Taylor (Ben Stiller's actress wife), Monique is yards above the norm in the looks department. This time, the vixen is nicely packaged in a Greek mythology setting that tells tales of the immortals, who apparently like to fuck a lot. The action heats up when Jack Venice (portraying the blacksmith Hephaestus) whips out his ladder-length dick and proceeds to lay pipe in his wives (Alexander, Roxy Jezel and Julie Night), all of whom hang in cages in a fiery, red set. Then Alexander and Eve Laurence shed their gossamer togas for a bit of sapphic love in a fog-ridden white motif. Finally, Alexander winds things up with a down-to-earth tryst that rates as one of the flick's standout scenes. Breathtaking strumpets galore, astute direction, high production values and top-notch music (a rarity in XXX) make Mythology a must-see. —B.G.

Flower Tucci bites off more than she can chew in Jam It All the Way Up My Ass.

Benjamin Brat jams it all the way up Flower's rosebud.

Your Ass Is Mine: Melissa Lauren does a doubleheader with Talon and Scott Nails.

Jam It All the Way Up My Ass

DIRECTOR: BOBBY DAMONE. STARRING: MISSY MONROE, ALICIA RHODES, FLOWER TUCCI, TYLA WYNN, TRINA MICHAELS, CANDI APPLE, CHRIS CHARMING, BENJAMIN BRAT, MARCO DUARTE, SASCHA, OTTO BAUER AND LEE STONE. DVD: ACID RAIN.

Would the makers of Jam It All the Way Up My Ass do anything half-assed? They definitely don't waste any ass to craft a two-and-a-half hour, all-anal extravaganza that's jam-packed with jaw-dropping action. Director Bobby Damone rounds up an insatiable pack of she-wolves and works them like pack mules. Missy Monroe is triple-teamed in a shark frenzy that has her squirting all over the camera lens. Flower Tucci propels enough girl goo to fill a swimming pool as she comes ten times during a furious fuck. Having burst like a fire hydrant, Flower renders Ben Brat's ultimate facial pop almost beside the point. Lee Stone drives Trina Michaels and Tyla Wynn wild in an insane scene that features Trina donning a strap-on and Tyla getting D.P.'ed. But Otto Bauer says it best: "Look at me while I fuck your head!" Smut can't legally get any more extreme than this. —K.W.

Your Ass Is Mine

DIRECTOR: NICK ORLEANS. STARRING: MELISSA LAUREN, VALERIE HERRERA, JACKIE ASHE, SUNNY LANE, MICHELLE BANKS, TORY LANE, LONNA LANE, TALON, SCOTT NAILS, CHRIS CANNON, BRETT ROCKMAN AND TOMMY GUNN. DVD: BAD SEED.

Considering the title, Your Ass Is Mine is surprisingly light on butt-fucking. Thank God (or Satan) for Melissa Lauren. The tantalizing anal queen singlehandedly provides most of the raunch when she gets D.P.'ed in the first scene. But assmen still have plenty to salivate over thanks to the incredible lineup and rosebud-centered zoom lens. Bungholing or not, this flick is all about ass. Sunny Lane and Valerie Herrera have some of the juiciest booties in the biz. Plus, Jackie Ashe's firm, petite buns are as smooth as a baby's bottom. It helps that all the sex action is potent. A major highlight is a wild free-for-all with Tory Lane, Michelle Banks, Lonna Lane and Tommy Gunn that leads to Tory taking it up the ass while Michelle horns in, and barely legal Lonna gets off by herself. Your Ass Is Mine might not live up to your anal expectations, but it won't disappoint. —K.W.

Naked FURY

On the set of HUSTLER Video's Desperate Housewhores #6

BY MARK JOHNSON

DOLLED UP IN A SKIMPY OUTFIT AND FAKE EYELASHES, blond badass Angela Stone saunters out of a Porn Valley house and chirps, "Got some stuff for me to smash my car with?!"

Series director Mark Kismet and his crew are standing in the driveway, ready to see this darling little squirt sensation get stripped and violent for the latest Desperate Housewhores installment. The plot may be leaner than a porn chick's power lunch—husband cheats, the missus gets even—but the sex is strictly high-calorie.

Kismet shows Angela an assortment of sledgehammers. One looks like it weighs more than she does. Kismet glances around. The most important prop is missing. "Where's the car?!" the Brit expatriate yells.

"Down the street!" a crew member roars. "Engine caught fire when we tried to start it."

Angela laughs. "That figures!" Then the strumpet fills us in: "I bought that thing a few years ago when I came to L.A. Pumped thousands into it on repairs, and it's still breaking down! So I told Mark, 'I hate my car. I wish I could just smash it!' And he said, 'Let's get that on film.'"

After extracting a mysterious charred glove from under the hood, the lemon lumbers to the set just as veteran stunt cock Mark Davis rolls in on his Harley. He's ready to fuck.

Kismet sums up the scene in no-brainer terms: "Angela drives in, sees the guy, starts fucking him. Okay?"

"Any choking or slapping?" Davis asks.

"No choking," Kismet replies. "Just fuck her until she's ready to squirt. And skip the blowjob. We'll do it later."

Kismet instructs cameraman Barry Wood (also a director himself on occasion) to get ready to shoot from inside the car when Angela plasters the windshield with pussy juice.

Minutes later, the owner of the dwelling—which he's leased for the day—isn't the only one gawking. With Angela sprawled on the hood of her car, Davis starts pounding the starlet's lubed-up snatch. Her screeches fill the suburban air. The look on the homeowner's face goes from mesmerized to worried. "You got to keep it down," he cautions. "We got neighbors."

"I can't help it!" Angela yelps. Without missing a thrust, Davis stuffs the vixen's pink panties into her mouth. Problem solved.

Soon Angela indicates she's ready to gush. Davis pulls out, spins his partner around and hoists her high.

"Don't get in the firing line!" Kismet bellows to everyone on the set.

Angela convulses with a deep moan, dousing the vehicle with a deluge of lady cum. Even the jaded porn crew is impressed. This girl is a human fire hydrant.

"Now, lick it up!" Davis barks, shoving Angela's face against the windshield, naughty puppy-style. With Wood's camera getting all the action from the driver's seat, Angela laps up the puddles of her own juices.

After another round of waterworks, it's time for violence. Kismet hands Angela a pair of safety goggles and work gloves. "That's it?" she questions. "What if I get cut?"

"Don't worry," the director mutters, adopting a hypnotic tone. "You won't get cut. Remember, this car's been mocking you for years. Now's your chance to get even."

A vicious glint sparkles in Angela's eye. Second thoughts are replaced by sheer determination. The crew takes a collective step back, and all three cameras roll.

"Take this, you bastard!" Angela howls, lunging at a headlight with an oversize ball-peen. The hammer bounces back without doing much damage. Those looking on trade skeptical glances, but Angela remains undaunted. Her next swing shatters the high-impact plastic and clicks her into full-naked fury. "How do you like that, you sonofabitch!"

The slender powerhouse dents her way across the hood and wallops the passenger-side window. The crash of breaking glass startles her for a second.

"Keep going," Kismet orders. Angela pulls back for a mighty swing, but the hammer flies out of her hand and almost sails into a neighbor's yard. Laughing it off, she grabs a sledgehammer and heaves it up over her head.

SLAM! Cracks spiderweb across the tinted sun roof.

WHAM! Now the back window crumples. The sledgehammer flies through the car and lands in the front seat—barely missing a horrified cameraman.

"I'm gonna bash the rest of this shit out," Angela hollers, high on rage and adrenaline. After finishing off the back window, she retrieves the ball-peen and scampers to the other side of the vehicle. Kismet tells her to just let go and keep moving. "Don't let the hammer drag you into the glass," he warns.

After a few tit-jiggling passes, the windshield looks like a camel fell on it. Angela climbs into the car, guns the engine and sneers, "You're getting everything you deserve, you motherfucker!"

As the nude trollop backs the banged-up car out of the shot, Kismet exclaims, "Great! We got it!" Angela hops out, a little stunned, and gazes at her handiwork. Towering over her, the 6-foot-4 director gives his charge an appreciative hug.

"Sure you don't want to keep it after all?" Barry Wood quips. Angela just laughs as she grabs a water bottle to rehydrate for her next scene.

The message is clear: There's nothing more dangerous than a Desperate Housewhore!

Lucy Lee gets her money's worth with John Strong in $2 Bill.

$2 Bill

DIRECTOR: B. SKOW. STARRING: LANNY BARBY, LUCY LEE, TORY LANE, JADA FIRE, EVAN STONE, JOHN STRONG, MANUEL FERRARA, TRENT TESORO AND JERRY. DVD: VIVID ENTERTAINMENT.

Jada Fire handles Manuel Ferrara in $2 Bill

Renting a porn video will set you back more than two bones, so is it worth shelling out your hard-earned cash for a look-see at $2 Bill? Only if you like hot chicks, because they don't come any hotter than Lanny Barby. Looking like Catherine Zeta-Jones's cock-hungry evil twin, Lanny continues her meteoric rise to the top of the XXX talent heap. Partial thanks go to sensational new director B. Skow, who uses his audiovisual skills to bring Lanny's sweet T&A right in your face. You get the feeling from watching the curvaceous French-Canadian in action that talking her out of doing anal is harder than talking her into it. The lascivious nymph kick-starts the proceedings with a glorious ass-fuck and then returns for a rousing finale. The rest is pure gravy. In any other adult film, Tory Lane would get top billing. What big, beautiful tits and a high-octane sex drive! For a double dose of Lanny Barby, plus powerhouse Tory Lane, $2 Bill is a bargain. —K.W.

What's hot (and not) in online porn

FROM Sir Rodney .com

REAL COUPLES ★★★★★

If only England could build cars as good as their porn... Over 50 terrific exclusive videos featuring UK amateurs shot at home by porn impresario "One Eyed" Jack. The featurettes are entirely believable and the candid pregame interviews add local color...

MILF HUNTER ★★★★★

The most famous porn site on the 'net is huge enough to be an industry unto itself, like WWF, only with wall-to-wall hardcore. Two guys, one with a video camera, approach hot MILFs in a public place and convince them to indulge in some afternoon delight...

KISS MY CRACK ★★☆☆☆

With a name like this, I suppose close-ups of women licking some guy's ass shouldn't be surprising. And assuming only a truck-stop crack whore would do such a thing, no shock that that's exactly what we get. There's enough HMA (hairy man ass) in porn as it is...

AMATEUR CANADA ★★★★½

Now we know how they stay warm in winter. Over 100 real amateurs frolic here, including Maja, a super-hot slutty Asian, and Vanessa, an Alanis morisette without the Issues. Should be called itty-bitty-titties, but the girls are cute despite, and Rodney's little Iditerod got a work out. Finally a reason for a 51st state...

(continued from page 13) interesting story in AARP: The Magazine [published by the American Association of Retired Persons]. The author claims that only 26% of single women over 45 masturbate. I can't believe that. I'm 54 and do this virtually every day.

I know that we men think about sex more than women, but I find it hard to believe that only one in four gals over 45 plays with herself. Plenty of women 45 and older look stunning, especially if they are wearing tight jeans, black stockings or even snow boots. I have no trouble at all getting off thinking about them. —S.B.

Chicago, Illinois

Apathy Is Pathetic

Earlier today, in my hometown, I went to vote. When I arrived, the polling place was like a ghost town, and the turnout (as expected) was small. This explains how a person like George W. Bush ended up in the White House.

A war is going on in which young military people are giving their lives, while lazy assholes here in the States still won't get out and vote. The next military shipment to Iraq should include nonvoting pieces of shit who think they're Americans.

Semper Fi, my brothers-in-arms! I salute you all for putting your lives on the line to keep America safe, even if ingrates living here don't deserve it. —Greg Podsada

Elk Grove Village, Illinois

Scandalous Loss

For years I've wanted to get dirty and scandalous with Adara Michaels and her partner, Amanda. These two exotic dancers perform together as Scandalous, and they live up to their name. I'd love to see them both in HUSTLER. —John P.

Bethlehem, Pennsylvania

From all indications, Adara Michaels has retired to the tranquility of the Midwest, leaving behind one of adult entertainment's most successful and unforgettable acts.

Nice Pussy!

After a night of shopping at the HUSTLER Hollywood store in Nashville, we brought home a bagful of toys. That's when our cat Lucky decided to make the bag a fun house. We really enjoy HUSTLER and decided to share the sight with you and your readers.

—Terry and Melinda Sawyer

Murfreesboro, Tennessee

Amateur Clamor

There seems to be a problem with your Beaver Hunt contest. I and other HUSTLER readers I've talked to believe that just about every finalist looks like a porn star. Sure, many people dig fake tits and lots of makeup, but not everyone!

Perhaps you should take a closer look at your amateur models blessed with natural beauty. Since I started subscribing to HUSTLER, I've seen plenty of Beavers and Real College Girls I'd like to see naked in a layout. Please pick one of them this year. Sometimes a change is nice.

—Jennifer G.

Sunland, New Mexico

Jennifer, our first finalist for 2006, Celeste (pages 128-135), is right up your alley, and her unenhanced rivals include a college coed and a cocktail waitress.

Czech Mate

My congratulations to Mr. Larry Flynt and the entire staff. HUSTLER Magazine is fantastic, splendid, amazing, marvelous, unique and most beautiful! Please, if possible, publish more erotic young women from my homeland.

—Jiri C.

Valdice, Czech Republic

Jiri, thanks for the praise and your exceptional female compatriots. The Czech Republic has supplied fine HUSTLER models since the end of the Cold War. Why would we want to stop now?

Do you have a comment, suggestion or complaint? We want to hear it. Send your letters (typed or neatly handwritten) to HUSTLER Feedback, 8484 Wilshire Blvd., Suite 900, Beverly Hills, CA 90211, or e-mail to HUSTLER@lfp.com and be sure to indicate your hometown. Please include a phone number if you want your letter considered for publication. All letters become the property of LFP Publishing Group, LLC and may be edited at our discretion.

CALI

GET YOUR LICKS IN

This is 24-year-old Cali's first-ever photo-shoot. "I did some runway work when I was younger," she says, "and I always dreamed of modeling. I never had the chance until a friend got me into HUSTLER." How did Cali like baring it all for the camera? "I have to admit it got me kind of hot. I loved it, and I'd jump at the chance to do it again. It was so much fun!"

PHOTOGRAPHY BY LAURENT SKY

When not steaming up our lenses, the green-eyed goddess from Chicago works as a cocktail waitress and bachelor party dancer. "I've never stripped in a club," the babe confides, "but I have shaken my naked ass at dozens of private events." Anything wild ever happen? "Of course, but I can't tell you what. That's why they're private!"

Talking about her love life, the 5-foot-6 beauty isn't so private. "I like everything when it comes to sex," Cali coos. "If I had to pick a favorite position, it would be doggy. Being rammed from behind feels really good!" But don't think that the candid young lady enjoys sexcapades solely in the bedroom. "The craziest thing I've ever done was go down on a guy while he was driving at 65 miles per hour," Cali recalls. "He didn't crash, thank God, but he sure did come!"

Being so free-spirited, Cali has a tendency to wander. "I have never left America," the mesmerizing Midwesterner tells us, "but I love going on vacation. When I get to travel, it's usually to Florida or California. They have the best clubs there. I love to barhop and party."

As for the future, Cali entertains simple dreams. "I would love to have a family and move to Los Angeles. If I could split my time between motherhood and nude modeling, that would be a win-win situation."
